The memorial of Sarah Middleton now residing in the City of Baltimore, most respectfully represents to the Honorable General Assembly of the State of Maryland, that her late Husband was an officer during the Revolutionary war Commanding an armed Ch =ooner Called the "Dauphin" and performed various and important services; that in Discharge of those duties he was ordered to hold himself in readiness to abide the orders of the Marquis Lafayette he took the General on board at the City of Annapolis, he was or= dered to proceed to York in Virginia the Chesapeake Bay being at time greatly infested with British armed Vessels, the Marquis thought it most advisable to take his barge at the mouth of Patuxe =ent to prevent his capture and by the Husband of your memoria= =list, keeping his station — opposite and abrest of the General from thence; he arrived safe in York river where he found his Brother Captn Gilbert Middleton waiting the arrival of to take orders from Lafyatte and who was immediately ordered to be in rediness to proceed to Annapolis with dispaches to the Governor of Maryland the Husband of your memorialist William Middleton was ordered [illegible] on board to the [illegible] all treatment and a tedious [illegible] =red by [illegible] was confined together with all the Crew of the