

LAURA AGHDAM
INDUSTRIAL SECURITY PROGRAM MANAGER
Headquarters, Dept. of the Army
Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-2

Ms. Aghdam is the Industrial Security Program Manager for the Department of the Army. In this position, she is the manager for the industrial security program at the Headquarters level, across all Army commands, and provides policy and oversight for the program. Ms. Aghdam began her 35-year career with the Defense Counterintelligence and Security Agency (DCSA) as an Industrial Security Representative, and while there, worked in multiple roles in the field including Field Office Chief and Liaison Officer to the DCSA overseas office. She then transferred to DCSA HQs and worked in policy, operations, and FOCI. She also served as the National Industrial Security Program Policy Advisory Committee program manager at ISOO, worked in information security at Washington HQs Services and served as an industry consultant to defense contractors. She came to the Army from a Joint Duty Assignment at the Under Secretary of Defense (Intelligence & Security), Critical Technology Protection Directorate, Industrial Security Branch Office where she assisted with the development of industrial security policy. Over her career, she has been involved in the drafting and/or issuance of multiple industrial security policy documents including the 32 CFR, Part 2004, National Industrial Security Program; the 32 CFR 117, National Industrial Security Program Operating Manual; and the DoDM 5220.32, Vol 1, National Industrial Security Program: Industrial Security Procedures For Government Activities.
