	PLANNING AND ARCHITECTURE (Table 700-1) (Applicable Air-Force Wide) The functions of communications-computer systems merged. The resulting consolidation of the 100- and 300- series into the 700- series directives requires revision of tables in AFR 12-50, Volume II. 1. Rule 1 covers the Air Force Communications Computer Systems Planning and Architecture Guidance (P&AG). This covers the overall guidance document for the communications program and includes related background records. The P&AG synthesizes DOD, JCS, and Air Force doctrine, policy, and guidance. It focuses on the mission and provides broad goals, objectives, strategies and guidance for planning future combat capabilities and readiness. It is published in January following the publication of the Defense Guidance (published every other year). The record copies and related background records at HQ USAF are of historical significance and are permanent records. This rule is an extract of former Tables 100-4, Rules 15-17 and 300-1, Rules 1 and 2. We do not know the volume of records on hand or the annual accumulations. The volume is small. Offer to National Archives in 5 year blocks 25 years after supersession. 2. Rule 2 is a new rule and covers copy of P&AG at MAJCOM level with disposition "destroy 1 year after superseded".

Disposition is destroy 1 year after superseded. Rule 4 covers the record copy at MAJCOM level and is a permanent record. This is a published plan. Estimate on hand and annual accumulation is not available. The publication is less than 100 pages and we expect annual accumulation not to exceed 100 copies. Offer to National Archives in 5 year blocks 25 years after supersession.
4.	Rule 5 covers the Base Communications-Computer Assessment. This is a listing of all existing communications-computer (C-C) facilities and plans to change facilities or acquire new C-C capabilities prepared by the base C-C. The CommunicationsComputer Requirement Board (CSRB) considers the listing at their annual meeting. The rule is an extract from Table 100-4, Rule 14.
