SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY AT THE MONTEGO BAY YACHT CLUB

1. Reference in report from book B, pages 241 to 244, paragraphs 1 - 4 dated 11 October, 1962, it is further reported that the M/Y Carmen Mana arrived at Montego Bay and docked at Kerr & Company Wharf at about 0800 hours 22 November, 1962. It sailed on the return trip to Fort Lauderdale, Miami, at 1500 hours same day.

2. It brought a small cargo as under:-

(a) Tiles and bath for Fairfield Hotel;

(b) Chemicals for Mr. LAMOLEY of Pest Control;

(c) A small boat for Mr. Frank LESTLEY.

3. As far as can be ascertained it sailed with no cargo but a small amount of whisky.

4. It is reported that John LARSEN to whom previous reports refer in connection with the supply of foodstuffs on this boat to Cubans, is the local agent. LARSEN met the boat at sea on its arrival. After it was docked and processed, he left in town accompanied by Mr. & Mrs. Bryon R. CAMERON (Americans), owners of the vessel. He returned later in the day and boarded the vessel. He again left and returned with the CAMERONS and left at about 1445 hours after having discussions with the Master of the Vessel to whom he handed a letter.

5. Following are members of the crew:-

(a) William D. EFANKS, (Master) 39 yrs. British;

(b) Joscelyn M. RIVERS, (mate) 36 yrs;
