ReCGlet 10-27-70.

Enclosed for Chicago and New York single copy of Detroit airtel dated 10-20-70 captioned "PENG Ming-min, 1756/2494/2404; IS - CHINA." (U)

As enclosed airtel indicates, Kutner obviously took advice of Chicago Office and contacted Chief of Police, Ann Arbor. As enclosed airtel also indicates, Kutner also in contact with State Department regarding PENG's safety.

Luis Kutner

For information of recipients, Chinat Embassy, Washington, D. C., has made numerous and strong representations to State in attempt to block PENG's visa issuance and entry into U.S., without success. In addition, the Bureau has pointed out to the Secretary of State that PENG's presence in the U.S. will have obvious internal security ramifications. (U)

Bufiles indicate Luis Kutner is discontinued criminal informant of Chicago Office (CGfile 137-647) terminated initially in 1955 due to erroneous information furnished and fact his emotional stability was questionable. In 1958 he was reinstated and until 1962 furnished information on the Top Hoodlum Program. For confidential information of recipients, on 11-3-70 Chinat Ambassador to U.S. advised Bureau representative in strict confidence that Kutner has approached Chinat Embassy offering his services to the Chinats despite the fact he is currently attorney for WUFI and is defending Peter Huang and CHENG Tzu-tsai, attempted assassins of Chinat Vice Premier CHIANG Ching-kuo, 4-24-70, New York City. Chinat Ambassador stated he is still uncertain of Kutner's motives in such an offer but believes Kutner is only opportunist interested in financial gain. Recipients exercise extreme caution to insure this information not disseminated outside Bureau. Recipients be circumspect in any future dealings with Kutner and advise Bureau promptly should he make additional requests. (U)

NOTE:

Subject is organization of Taiwan Independence Movement (TIM) dedicated to overthrow of present Chinat Government and whose members attempted assassination Vice Premier, Chinat Government. PENG Ming-min, leader of TIM who escaped from Taiwan, surfaced in Sweden, is presently in U.S. His attorney and also attorney of subject is Luis Kutner who has contacted both Chicago Office, local police and State Department to seek protection for PENG from Chinats. By letter dated 10-2-70 the Director informed Secretary of State Rogers that Chinat Government deeply distressed over State plans to issue visa to PENG and the fact that his entry into U.S. would have obvious internal security ramifications. This information was also furnished to Dr. Kissinger at White House, the Attorney General and the Commissioner of INS. On 11-3-70 [Chinat Ambassador CHOW Shu-kai] (S) furnished information to SA Robert L. Pence regarding Kutner's approach to [Chinats.] (S)
