NUMBER	SUBSCRIBER	DATES CALLED
Diamond 7-7967	J. J. SCARDINA 1620 Farrell Terrace Farrell, Pa.	October 20 (2) October 28 November 16 November 19

Regarding SCARDINA, on July 1, 1957, CHARLES RAY "RED" LA CAMERA (Pittsburgh top hoodlum) advised SA PORTELLA that he was engaged in handling numbers and bookmaking on a small scale and that he would never get big in this endeavor. LA CAMERA said that in the Sharon-Farrell, Pa., area, JOHN SCARDINA was the big number's baron and that all others merely worked for SCARDINA.

On January 27, 1958, Mrs. CLOVER GIBSON, Secretary, and Miss LORENA SANDERS, Clerk, Velda Rose Motel, Hot Springs, Arkansas, advised SA ROBERT E. HICKAM that records of that motel reveal that JOHN S. LA ROCCA, 500 North Craig Street, Pittsburgh, was registered in the Velda Rose Motel on October 22, 1957, with one JOHN SCARDINA, address not given and departed on November 8, 1957. Mrs. SANDERS advised that SCARDINA had made calls to Sharon, Diamond 7-7967, on October 22, 26, 30, and November 6, 1957.

T-3 advised that the following call was made from Forest 4 5296:

NUMBER	SUBSCRIBER	DATES CALLED
Apalachin 6-2711	JOSEPH BARBARA, SR Apalachin, New York	October 20,1957

JOSEPH BARBARA, SR., is an Albany top hoodlum, at whose home the Apalachin conference was held.

T-4 furnished a list of toll calls for the period November and December, 1956 and January to November 1957, for the telephone numbers Apalachin 62711 and Apalachin 22710, listed for JOSEPH BARBARA, Apalachin, to SA PATRICK A. MUNLEY.

It is noted that JEAN MANNARINO is the wife of KELLY MANNARINO (Pittsburgh top hooldum) who attended the Apalachin conference in New York.

Regarding LA ROCCA's association with JOE ROSA as was previously set out on January 14, 1958, Father JOSEPH SHEETZ, Corpus Christi Roman Catholic Church, Pittsburgh, advised SA THOMAS G. FORSYTH, III, that he has in the past on many occasions had lunch or supper at the Genovese Cocktail Lounge, 412 Larimer Avenue, Pittsburgh, and has on several of these occasions observed JOHN LA ROCCA in the company of JOE ROSA, MIKE GENOVESE, SAM MANNARINO, and KELLY MANNARINO.

On January 14, 1958, T 7, who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that for the past several years, LA ROCCA has been a frequent visitor to the Genovese Lounge, Pittsburgh, and that at various times he has observed him in the company of such individuals as FRANK AMATO, SAM MANNARINO, JOE ROSA, KELLY MANNARINO, MIKE GENOVESE, ARCHIE NELSON and "BOOTS" BELLINI.

On January 16, 1957, Detective JOHN JAMES, Pittsburgh Police Department, advised SA FORSYTH of a confidential source who recently told him that SAM MANNARINO, KELLY MANNARINO, and JOHN LA ROCCA had close associations in Pittsburgh rackets.

[redacted] Agent ARTHUR RUSTON, Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Tax Unit, Binghamton, New York, noted [redacted]

Miss LORENA SANDERS, Clerk, Velda Rosa Motel, Hot Springs, furnished the following calls made by JOHN LA ROCCA on the dates set forth.

Release in part per IRS 7/14/98 /gp

92-2940-7 11(a)

On January 14, 1958, JOSEPH BRUSCO, 207 Guyasuta Road, Fox Chapel, Pa., was interviewed at his bar at 549 North Homewood Avenue, Pittsburgh. BRUSCO allegedly had furnished information to ANDREW J. SUSCE, former IRS collector, Pittsburgh, regarding the number's activities of JOHN LA ROCCA. BRUSCO advised that the information he had given in the past was now "ancient history" and that at the time he furnished this information he did so only because he was pressured as regards to his own income tax. BRUSCO said he has long since terminated his number's business and has had no further association with number's writers in the Pittsburgh area. BRUSCO stated he knew JOHN LA ROCCA but advised he, BRUSCO, was a small time operator. BRUSCO would neither confirm or deny that he had turned his numbers into JOHN LA ROCCA.

BRUSCO was adamant at the time of interview and obviously did not care to furnish any information of any kind.

On January 17, 1958, JACK MAZZA, retired city detective, advised that the numbers business in Pittsburgh is open to anyone or any faction who is or are able to pay off the police. MAZZA said that in no instance is the numbers business controlled by any one man or any alleged syndicate. MAZZA said that in the days past JOHN LA ROCCA had a large numbers business in the East Liberty Section of Pittsburgh, but that over the course of time he has entered into a semi-retirement. MAZZA said that the biggest book in the East Liberty Section now is run by PHIL and MIKE GENOVESE and that he did not doubt that LA ROCCA still received a piece of this book. MAZZA stated that he had heard that MIKE GENOVESE attended the Apalachin conference on behalf of his brother PHIL GENOVESE and that the conference was conducted to establish a new boss. MAZZA declined to say where this information had come from and stated that he could not deny or affirm its veracity.

No change is noted under this caption with exception of the information hereinbefore set forth that LA ROCCA associates with a prostitute by the name of FRANCES PRIAM.

I. GRAND JURY

On February 6, 1958, JUDD MECHLING, Deputy U. S. Marshal for the Western District of Pennsylvania, at Pittsburgh, advised SA VOEGE that his office holds a subpoena for [redacted] for an appearance before the Federal Grand Jury of the [redacted] on [redacted] to give [redacted] evidence in regard to an [redacted] MECHLING could not elaborate upon this but did advise that a deputy marshal had visited the home of the subject at Ingomar and was advised by Mrs. LA ROCCA that the subject was "out of town". MECHLING said deputies were unable to locate him. MECHLING advised he would immediately notify the Pittsburgh Office should he receive any further information in this regard.
