LETTERS OF APPLICATION AND RECOMMENDATION
DURING THE ADMINISTRATION OF JAMES MADISON, 1809-1817

The Letters of Application and Recommendation of the Department of State (1797-1901) are arranged in units that correspond approximately with Presidential administrations. The material in each unit is in alphabetical order under the surname of the applicant or person recommended. This microfilm publication, comprising 8 rolls, reproduces the letters of this series during the administration of President James Madison, 1809-17.

Requests for employment in the Navy, War, and Treasury Departments are also in this series. Because these areas were beyond the purview of the Secretary of State, it is possible that such applications were referred to the Department of State by the President. In fact, many applications were forwarded by Members of Congress and executive officials of the Government to whom they had been addressed.

At the beginning of the Madison era, Revolutionary War service by an applicant or, more usually, by the older members of his family, was a potent qualification for appointment. By the end of the period, service in the War of 1812 became an additional advantage. Although letters of recommendation from Thomas Jefferson and Charles Carroll of Carrollton appear in this series, the burden of political recommendation had passed to a second generation: Henry Clay and Ninian Edwards, DeWitt Clinton and John C. Calhoun.

Until 1834 no separate organizational units existed within the Department of State. In 1834 the Home Bureau was created and received custody of the Letters of Application and Recommendation. The records were successively in the charge of the Clerk of Appointments and Commissions, 1846-70; the Bureau of Pardons and Commissions, 1870-95; the Appointment Clerk, 1895-98; the Bureau of Appointments, 1898-1924; and the Appointment Section in the Chief Clerk's Office, 1924-39. On January 11, 1939, the records were transferred to the National Archives.

The records are part of Record Group 59, General Records of the Department of State, which contains other documents that relate to appointments to Federal office. These include oaths of office, attested copies of confirmations and rejections of appointments, and copies of commissions of departmental and Foreign Service personnel and other Federal officials.

LIST OF APPLICANTS OR PERSONS RECOMMENDED

Each entry gives the name of the applicant, appropriate cross-references to other applicants, the date span of documents and their enclosures, and the number of documents that contain a reference to the applicant or applicants. The term "document" as used in this microcopy may be either an individual letter with no enclosures or a letter of transmittal with its enclosures.

The list contains only the names of applicants for positions and of officeholders. It does not list the many important individuals whose letters of endorsement and comment are present in the file.

Examples and explanations of the cross-references used in this microfilm publication are as follows:

1. Adair, John See also Pope, Alexander

Signifies that in addition to the material filed under the name of John Adair there are references to him included under the name of Alexander Pope.

2. Archer, Abraham. See Madison, James

Signifies that all material referring to Abraham Archer will be found under the name of James Madison.
