The Honorable Ed Siskel
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20502

Dear Mr. Siskel:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to the incumbent President of our intent to open George W. Bush Presidential records in response to the systematic processing projects and Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests listed in Attachment A.

These records, consisting of 27,271 pages 15,102 assets, and 24 video clips have been reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions, resulting in 51 pages, 2,202 assets, and 1 video clip restricted in whole and 287 pages and 64 assets restricted in part. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 26,933 pages, 12,836 assets, and 23 video clips in whole and 287 pages and 64 assets in part. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing former President George W. Bush's representative, Freddy Ford, of our intent to release these records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is August 1, 2024, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this notification, please contact me at (202) 357-5091 or NARA General Counsel Gary M. Stern at (301) 837-3026.

This researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for photographs of President George W. Bush's pets. The George W. Bush Presidential electronic records proposed for opening are photographs primarily containing President George W. Bush's dogs Spot and Barney from January 2001 to July 2002. Some photos of the Bushes' cat India are also included. Photographs depict pets interacting with President George W. Bush, Mrs. Laura Bush, Bush family members, White House administration staff and White House residence staff including Dale Haney, Gary Walters and Maria Galvan at the White House, Camp David, and Prairie Chapel Ranch in Crawford, Texas. Spot and Barney are often pictured boarding and disembarking Air Force One and Marine One during arrivals and departures at both the White House and Camp David. They are also seen travelling aboard Air Force One and Marine One. President George W. Bush is shown walking and playing with Spot and Barney and is pictured driving his truck with Barney at Prairie Chapel Ranch. Pets are photographed throughout the White House and its grounds. Spot and Barney are photographed during meetings and phone calls in the Oval Office, as well as playing on the South Lawn and in the Rose Garden. Spot is shown playing in snow and swimming in the pool. Spot and Barney are both pictured throughout the White House with holiday décor. Barney, Spot, and India are photographed as part of portrait sessions with and without President George W. Bush and Mrs. Laura Bush. Notable portrait sessions include Mrs. Laura Bush and EPA Administrator Christie Todd Whitman participating in a Town and Country photo shoot with their dogs, Barney and Coors in the Jacqueline Kennedy Garden, President George W. Bush running on the White House track with Barney during a Runner's World photo shoot, and President George W. Bush posing at Prairie Chapel Ranch for portrait painter Robert Anderson. Pets are also pictured during media interviews including those with Oprah, Lary King, Barbara Walters, Tom Brokaw, and Hugh Sidey. Events with world leaders are also pictured, including Tony Blair's visit to Camp David and visit to Prairie Chapel Ranch with his family as well as a visit by Vladimir Putin to Prairie Chapel Ranch. Leaders welcomed to the White House include President Jose Maria Aznar of Spain and Ana Botella de Aznar and President and Mrs. Kwasniewski of Poland. Other visits to the White House include those by actor Sean Connery, Mrs. Hosni Mubarak, cyclist Lance Armstrong, and Prince Edward, Earl of Wessex. Other White House events featuring pets include a National Governors Association Dinner, President George W. Bush greeting members of the Young Gentlemen's Club from Cleveland Elementary School, a 4th of July celebration, Barney's First Birthday Party, White House Children's Story Hour, a press preview of the new Oval Office carpet, an Easter Egg Roll sponsor breakfast, and President George W. Bush greeting VFW Leaders and posing with VFW Youth Winners on the South Portico stairs. These materials are from the White House Photo System – Presidential Search and Access Set.

Dallas, TX 75205

Dear Mr. Ford:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to you, as former President George W. Bush's representative, of our intent to open George W. Bush Presidential records. These records were processed under the systematic processing projects and Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests described in Attachment A.

These records, consisting of 27,271 pages 15,102 assets, and 24 video clips have been reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions, resulting in 51 pages, 2,202 assets, and 1 video clip restricted in whole and 287 pages and 64 assets restricted in part. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 26,933 pages, 12,836 assets, and 23 video clips in whole and 287 pages and 64 assets in part. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing the incumbent President of our intent to release these George W. Bush Presidential records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is August 1, 2024, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this notification, please contact me at (202) 357-5091 or NARA General Counsel, Gary M. Stern, at (301) 837-3026.

Sincerely,

This researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for photographs of President George W. Bush's pets. The George W. Bush Presidential electronic records proposed for opening are photographs primarily containing President George W. Bush's dogs Spot and Barney from January 2001 to July 2002. Some photos of the Bushes' cat India are also included. Photographs depict pets interacting with President George W. Bush, Mrs. Laura Bush, Bush family members, White House administration staff and White House residence staff including Dale Haney, Gary Walters and Maria Galvan at the White House, Camp David, and Prairie Chapel Ranch in Crawford, Texas. Spot and Barney are often pictured boarding and disembarking Air Force One and Marine One during arrivals and departures at both the White House and Camp David. They are also seen travelling aboard Air Force One and Marine One. President George W. Bush is shown walking and playing with Spot and Barney and is pictured driving his truck with Barney at Prairie Chapel Ranch. Pets are photographed throughout the White House and its grounds. Spot and Barney are photographed during meetings and phone calls in the Oval Office, as well as playing on the South Lawn and in the Rose Garden. Spot is shown playing in snow and swimming in the pool. Spot and Barney are both pictured throughout the White House with holiday décor. Barney, Spot, and India are photographed as part of portrait sessions with and without President George W. Bush and Mrs. Laura Bush. Notable portrait sessions include Mrs. Laura Bush and EPA Administrator Christie Todd Whitman participating in a Town and Country photo shoot with their dogs, Barney and Coors in the Jacqueline Kennedy Garden, President George W. Bush running on the White House track with Barney during a Runner's World photo shoot, and President George W. Bush posing at Prairie Chapel Ranch for portrait painter Robert Anderson. Pets are also pictured during media interviews including those with Oprah, Lary King, Barbara Walters, Tom Brokaw, and Hugh Sidey. Events with world leaders are also pictured, including Tony Blair's visit to Camp David and visit to Prairie Chapel Ranch with his family as well as a visit by Vladimir Putin to Prairie Chapel Ranch. Leaders welcomed to the White House include President Jose Maria Aznar of Spain and Ana Botella de Aznar and President and Mrs. Kwasniewski of Poland. Other visits to the White House include those by actor Sean Connery, Mrs. Hosni Mubarak, cyclist Lance Armstrong, and Prince Edward, Earl of Wessex. Other White House events featuring pets include a National Governors Association Dinner, President George W. Bush greeting members of the Young Gentlemen's Club from Cleveland Elementary School, a 4th of July celebration, Barney's First Birthday Party, White House Children's Story Hour, a press preview of the new Oval Office carpet, an Easter Egg Roll sponsor breakfast, and President George W. Bush greeting VFW Leaders and posing with VFW Youth Winners on the South Portico stairs. These materials are from the White House Photo System – Presidential Search and Access Set.
