FALL 2013 GENEALOGY SERIES

September 10

Finding Family: Researching the 1940 Census

The 1940 census is one of the most important genealogy resources released in the past decade. Come learn the basics about the 1940 census and how to research it.

October 8

Finding Family: Beginner Genealogy at the National Archives

Learn the basics of genealogical research using Federal Records, including Passenger Arrival, Census, Naturalization, and Military records at the National Archives. This program is a part of the National Archives "Archives Month" Open House.

November 12

Finding Family: Using evetRecs

Staff will provide a hands-on tutorial of the National Archives eVetRecs system to create a customized order form to request information from your, or your relative's, military personnel records from World War I to the present.

December 10

Finding Family: Using NARA's Online Resources

Staff will provide an overview of research tools on www.archives.gov and demonstrate how to locate archival holdings through the Online Public Access Catalog.

All programs are held in the 3rd floor Learning Center. All programs are free and open to the public.
