Argentines/Release

Jailed American

By Joanne Omang
 Washington Post Foreign Service
BUENOS AIRES, March 28—Argentina's new military government last night released and deported the only known U.S. citizen held prisoner here, Olga Talamante, 24, of Gilroy, Calif.

Talamante's case became something of a cause celebre last year when she told visitors to her cell in Azul, 150 miles south of Buenos Aires, that she had been tortured after being arrested in September 1974.

Talamante a Mexican-American, was placed aboard a flight for New York early this morning, U.S. embassy officials here confirmed.

She was arrested and charged with belonging to a clandestine guerrilla organization that had been blamed for a January 1974 attack on the Azul army garrison, a major Argentine military base. She was convicted on the strength of two pistols and guerrilla propaganda found in the slum area apartment from which she and leftist Peronist friends had been working at political organizing in the area. Her attorney argued that the items were planted, but Talamante received a three-year sentence.

At her trial, she told the judge she had been given electric shocks to her teeth, breasts and finger joints and had been threatened with rape. She showed a vis-that otherwise would have been obtained months ago.

Talamante's deportation is the first such action by the new junta, which overthrew former President Isabel Peron in a coup Wednesday. The Buenos Aires Herald this morning quoted high church sources as saying that Peron, 45, does not want to be exiled to Spain but would prefer to live in retirement in Argentina. The church sources said

Peron is penniless, despite property holdings of her late husband in Spain. Military sources have indicated that Peron was to be questioned on allegations of corruption and other charges, and her responses made public. Then she was to be flown to exile in Spain. She is now under house arrest at an elegant, castle-like lake district resort called El Tesidor, 800 miles south of Buenos Aires.

She is under tight security, presumably against possible guerrilla attacks that have resumed after a brief pause following the coup. At least 15 persons died in guerrilla battles with police around Argentina yesterday and this morning, 11 of them in volatile Cordoba Province.

Anti-guerrilla action is certain to intensify after Gen. Jorge Rafael Videla, who led the coup, formally assumes the presidency Monday.

His new Cabinet, announced today, will incorporate two civilians as well as two members from each of the three branches of the armed services. The switch to civilian Cabinet ministers initially was planned to initiate a second stage of slightly relaxed measures, and its beginning so early indicates that the military men in power already feel themselves secure.

The military leaders insisted throughout the coup's planning stages that they were not personally interested in political power. To back that up, the junta announced today that all military personnel in government jobs will receive only their military pay and no additional salary.

They also have bent over backward to avoid seeming vindictive toward Peron or her followers. One newspaper was forced to withdraw a virulently anti-Peronist advertisement.

Instead, they have leaked rather than announced the finding of torture equipment in the Metalworkers Union building when it was taken over the night of the coup. In addition to electric prods, hypodermic needles and prison cells, the soldiers turned up flags of Argentina's various guerrilla groups such as have been found wrapped around bodies in the past. Deaths blamed on those guerrilla groups were often vehemently denied in the leftists' clandestine communiqués. The leader of the metalworkers, Peronist union chief Lorenzo Miguel, vanished the night of the coup.

The location of a number of other major figures also remains a mystery. In the absence of official statements speculation on the number of those arrested ranges from fewer than 1,000 up to 4,500.

In its new manual of guidelines for the local press, the junta tells journalists to "induce the restoration of the values of order, work, dedication, honesty and responsibility in the context of moral Christianity... and avoid the propagation of the opinion of unqualified persons who are without authority to express themselves on matters of public interest."

Freed American Tells of Torture In Argentine Jail

A 27-year-old California, flown here yesterday after her release from an Argentine prison, charged that she had been tortured by the Argentine federal police for two days until she falsely confessed to having taken part in subversive acts against the now defunct Peronist Government.

Olga Talamante was arrested Nov. 11, 1974, five days after that Government declared a state of siege. The police, raiding a barbecue in the cattle town of Azul, about 170 miles south of Buenos Aires, also seized a dozen Argentine members of a dissident Peronist youth group and accused them of having two guns and subversive literature.

The Authorities charged at the time that the group was a left-wing terrorist gang responsible for the deaths of a United States consular official and at least 14 Argentines. Miss Talamante, a Mexican-born United States citizen who had stayed in Argentina after a study trip, was convicted of subversive activities and sentenced to three years in prison last September.

Before flying to California yesterday, she said at Kennedy International Airport that the charges were trumped up and that the Azul youth group had run a day-care center and cultural events for local residents. She charged that the guns had been planted by the police.

"I was blindfolded for two days, beaten and given electrical shocks until I signed a confession," she said. Her arrest became known to the United States Embassy in Buenos Aires four weeks later, at which time she reported her treatment.

"We never had any guns; we never had any literature," she said yesterday. "They were planted by the police. The same two guns were used to plant on other persons they wanted to seize."

She said that after the beatings ceased prison conditions were "terrible," with 17 women prisoners sharing a 12-by-15 foot cell.

Miss Talamante, of Gilroy, Calif., was released on orders of the military Government that ousted President Isabel Martinez de Peron last week and deposed as an undesirable alien.

ON NOVEMBER 5, 1975, ACTING CONSUL, ADOLPHO E. NANCLARES ARGENTINE CONSULATE GENERAL, SAN FRANCISCO, ADVISED A SPECIAL AGENT OF THE FBI THAT HE HAD RECEIVED INFORMATION FROM THE ARGENTINE CONSUL GENERAL IN LOS ANGELES THAT THE OLGA TALAMONTE DEFENSE COMMITTEE HAD SCHEDULED A DEMONSTRATION IN LOS ANGELES FOR NOVEMBER 10, 1975. NANCLARES ADVISED THAT THERE WAS A POSSIBILITY THAT THERE WOULD BE A DEMONSTRATION IN SAN FRANCISCO THE SAME DATE.

ON NOVEMBER 6, 1975, A LEAFLET WAS OBTAINED IN OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA BY A SPECIAL AGENT OF THE FBI. THE LEAFLET ANNOUNCED A PUBLIC DEMONSTRATION AT THE ARGENTINE CONSULATE GENERAL, 870 MARKET STREET, SAN FRANCISCO, ON NOVEMBER 10, 1975 FROM 11:00 A.M. TO 1:00 P.M. THE LEAFLET ALSO ANNOUNCED A DANCE BENEFIT AT APUMEC HALL, 3256 EAST 14TH STREET, OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, ON NOVEMBER 15, 1975 FROM 9:00 P.M. TO 1:00 A.M.

THE LEAFLET DID NOT INDICATE ANY SPONSOR FOR THE DEMONSTRATION.

ON NOVEMBER 7, 1975, ACTING CONSUL NANCLARES WAS ADVISED OF THE ABOVE BY A SPECIAL AGENT OF THE FBI. NANCLARES ADVISED THAT ON NOVEMBER 6, 1975, AN INDIVIDUAL WHO IDENTIFIED HIMSELF AS BOB BARBER, TELEPHONE NO. (465-9544), A FRIEND OF THE TALAMONTE FAMILY, TELEPHONICALLY CONTACTED THE ARGENTINE CONSULATE. BARBER SPOKE WITH NANCLARES AND STATED THAT MRS. TALAMONTE WISHED TO PRESENT A PETITION TO NANCLARES AT 10:30 A.M. JUST BEFORE THE DEMONSTRATION BEGAN. NANCLARES ADVISED BARBER THAT HE WOULD NOT RECEIVE MRS. TALAMONTE AT 10:30 A.M., THAT HE HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH OLGA TALAMONTE'S LEGAL SITUATION IN ARGENTINA, AND THAT THE ARGENTINE CONSULATE GENERAL WAS NOT THE PROPER CHANNEL FOR SUCH A PETITION. BARBER INDICATED THAT THEY WOULD ATTEMPT TO PRESENT THE PETITION IN ANY CASE.

LIAISON HAS BEEN EFFECTED WITH THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE SECURITY OFFICE, U.S. SECRET SERVICE, AND THE SAN FRANCISCO POLICE DEPARTMENT, INTELLIGENCE SECTION.
