

Teaching with Documents at the NATIONAL ARCHIVES

“U.S. Constitution”

Learn how to use historical documents from the National Archives to teach students about the U.S Constitution. Analyze documents. Brainstorm with other teachers about how to bring the Constitution “alive.”

Wednesday September 14, 6:30 – 8:00 PM

The public is also invited to attend a live “webcast” of National Public Radio’s Justice Talking Debate on “Free Speech in the Digital Age”. The program will focus on the First Amendment and will examine reasons for both protecting and limiting speech.

Friday September 16, 1:30 – 2:30 PM

380 Trapelo Road, Waltham, MA

Space limited to 20 participants.

Both events are FREE!

Please RSVP by September 9!

Light refreshments will be served.
