

MYSTERY

Dear Archivist Detectives:

Let's figure out the stories told by these historic documents.

Examine the passenger "list or manifest."

What is the name of the ship? _____

Where are the passengers sailing from? _____

What date did they leave? _____

Look at lines 5-16. What is the last name of the passengers? _____

Clue: "do" means "ditto," or "the same as before."

What is the father's "calling or occupation" (job)? _____

What is the mother's "calling or occupation" (job)? _____

Some kids are listed as having a "calling or occupation" (job). What is it? _____

Find Giovanni. Where & when was he born? _____

Whom are they going to visit? _____

Where does the ship come in? _____ When? _____

Look at the photographs of the girls. Can you find them on the passenger list?

What might the "SI" in the margin mean? Examine the "Special Inquiry" document, too.

Examine the "Declaration of Intent." Find her on the passenger list.

Who are the other people listed on the declaration? _____

What other information does this passenger list tell us?
