

Where Historical Records Come To Life

What is Footnote.com?

Footnote is your doorway to millions of original records from the best archives and libraries in the United States; all from the comfort of your own home. Featuring documents found nowhere else on the web Footnote.com helps genealogists and historians discover new details about people, places and events.

What can you find on Footnote.com?

Here is just a sample of the types of records you will find on Footnote.com

Also featured on Footnote.com

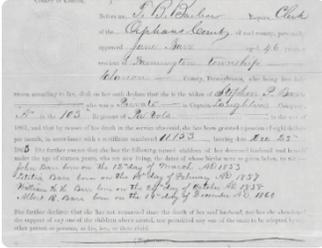

- Naturalization Records
- City Directories
- Vital Records
- Passport Applications
- Historical Photos
- And millions more

Where Historical Records Come To Life

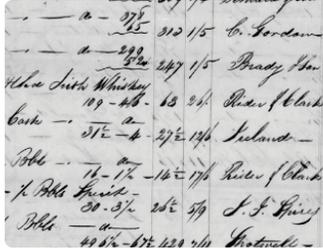

What makes Footnote different?

Footnote.com features documents, records and photos found nowhere else on the web. Footnote.com continues to add millions of new documents to the site every month. Some of the unique records include:

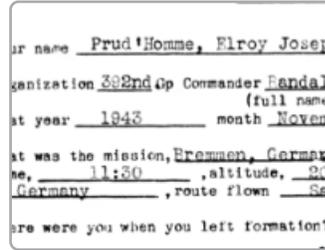

Civil War Pension Files

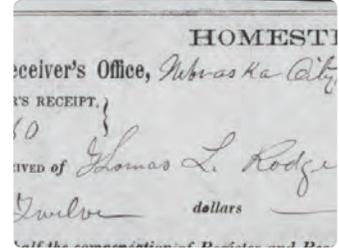

War of 1812 Prize Cases

WWII Missing Air Crew Reports

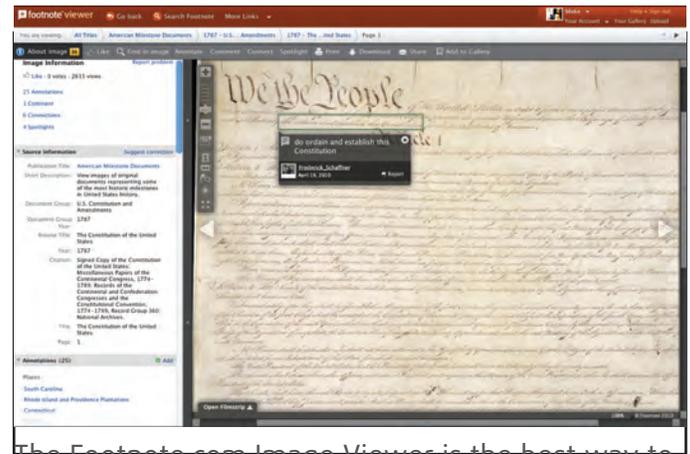

Homestead Records

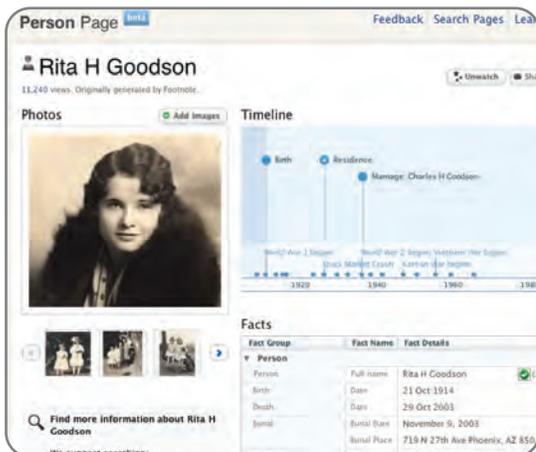

PLUS MILLIONS MORE UNIQUE DOCUMENTS ONLY FOUND ON FOOTNOTE

Do More on Footnote.com

- Annotate records
- Add your comments and insights
- Create your own web pages
- Add your own historical documents and photos.

The Footnote.com Image Viewer is the best way to view original documents online.

Footnote Pages

Upload your own shoebox of photos and documents to create a webpage for your ancestors. Pages feature a timeline, map, photos and stories.

Create for Free!