MAY 23rd

Arrived Cherbourg at 1:53 P.M. on SS REPUBLIC May 23, 1930. Met by Major G.F.M. Dailey, Lt. Freeman and Miss Blanche Rulon, Captain Army Nurse.

Party "C" was originally intended to be transported on the SS "HARDING" sailing from New York on May 14 and arriving at Cherbourg on May 22, but due to the fact that this ship was withdrawn from schedule, the members of Party "C" were transferred to the SS "REPUBLIC" sailing from New York on May 13, which ship already bore the pilgrims of Party "B". The "REPUBLIC" was not due at Cherbourg until May 23rd and consequently, party "C" lost one day of its originally scheduled stay in France, at the very beginning.

Conducted to their compartments on train which left at 3:45 P.M. as scheduled. Train arrived at the Invalides station in Paris at 9:53 P.M. on time.

The Officer in Charge, his staff, seven conducting officers, four interpreters and two baggage checkers met the train at the station.

Mrs. Margaret Forsyth of Ohio, being dean of the party, was welcomed personally by the Officer in Charge and accompanied by him, led the party out of the station to the busses. The French Government was represented by Mr. Jean Favier, Special Commissary from the Minister of the Interior.

The pilgrims were promptly embarked in their busses and arrived at the hotels, followed by their baggage, in a very short time.

Russian Railway Corps

- ◉ State Department formed this semi military organization of American railway engineers and technicians in September 1917, at the request of the Russian government.
- ◉ The mission was to operate the Trans Siberian, Chinese Eastern, and Ussuri Railways and instruct the Russian railway men in the American methods of railway operation.
- ◉ The corps originally had no connection with the military forces of the United States, but members had simulated military rank and were uniformed similar to army officers, with the exception of the collar insignia, which read "R.R.S."
- ◉ On March 30, 1971, the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia determined that service with the Russian Railway Corps was creditable for military service.
- ◉ Personnel records were maintained for each member in order to retain each individual's work history, behavior, pay and allotment information, and medical conditions. Information on each member includes commissions received, promotions, correspondence, prior employment information, and personal letters.
