Document # 7

2. Mexico

A temporary truce may follow last night's decision by student leaders to suspend mass rallies. If observed, this ban will smooth things out for the Olympics, but the students by no means have given up, and any armistice will be uneasy at best.

The government has not abandoned its charges that leftists are responsible for the disorders. Some [REDACTED] [REDACTED] however, are saying the students' principal assistance is coming from enemies of Diaz Ordaz in his own party.

Meanwhile, in Veracruz, the Cuban consul is spreading rumors that the US is behind the trouble and hopes to use it as a pretext for military intervention.
