MEMORANDUM FOR THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Re: 50X1,6
[REDACTED]

This Bureau's memorandum of July 23, 1970, approved by you on July 24, 1970, pointed out the request by 50X1,6 for continuation of 50X1,6 50X1,6 for reasons affecting important foreign policy objectives. The requested coverage had previously been in force and consisted of 50X1,6 50X1,6 50X1,6 Coverage at both mentioned addresses had been previously discontinued on July 19, 1970.

The coverage requested most recently by 50X1,6 50X1,6 and approved by you on July 24, 1970, was reinstituted at 50X1,6 50X1,6 on July 25, 1970.

Respectfully,

50X1 [REDACTED]

John Edgar Hoover
Director

50X1,6

To recommend reactivation of technical surveillance (tesur) of 50X1,6 in accordance with 50X1,6 request. Memorandum seeking Attorney General (AG) approval attached.

At specific request of 50X1,6 dated 6/24/70,
we sought AG approval for tesur on 50X1,6 for a critical two-week period during which 50X1,6

50X1,6
50X1,6

Original 50X1,6 request specifically limited desired coverage to two-week period. Coverage was approved by AG 6/30/70 and was instituted 7/6/70, being discontinued 7/19/70.

50X1,6

50X1,6 by letter dated 7/20/70 (attached) has now requested
tesur be continued for reasons affecting important foreign policy objectives. In view of this request and 50X1,6 50X1,6 it is felt we should comply and reinstitute coverage which can be afforded with full security assured by WFO.

Our prior coverage provided information of 50X1,6 50X1,6 which data were furnished immediately upon receipt to 50X1,6
50X1,6

RECOMMENDATION:

That reinstitution of tesur at 50X1,6 be approved. If approved, attached memorandum to AG will be sent.
