Reference is made to memorandum of J. C. Farrington to Mr. McDermott 6/17/75, captioned as above, with copy of the inventory attached, which requested INTD to review the inventory to determine if any of the documents were of interest.

PURPOSE:

To advise regarding disposition of documents in captioned inventory which originated in INTD.

A copy of the inventory is attached to this memorandum.

On 9/12/75, Section Chief James C. Farrington advised that the Department had not yet made a decision as to the disposition of the documents obtained from Mr. Wilderotter.

The inventory has been reviewed by substantive sections of the INTD for the purpose of making recommendations as to the disposition of individual items if they are retained by the Bureau and are not governed by any existing regulations regarding document retention. It was suggested that where a document is the original Bureau correspondence to the Department, it should be returned to the Bureau file with appropriate notation made. If the document was a copy of the original, Sections varied as to the dispositions of the document and their responses are noted below.

The Freedom of Information Act Section agrees with the ultimate disposition of these documents as set forth above by the Intelligence Division. However, in Legal Counsel Division to Mr. J. B. Adams memorandum of 7/8/75 it was reported that the Deputy Attorney General had requested a copy of the inventory for the purpose of discussing it with Mr. K. William O'Connor following which the Deputy would contact Assistant Director Mintz to discuss further the disposition of the materials reflected in the inventory and presently being held by the Bureau. Therefore, no action should be taken regarding the disposition of the above-referenced documents until we have received appropriate instructions from the Deputy Attorney General.
