Mr. Wick:

General Schulz called from Gettysberg. Said General Eisenhower had received a letter from b(6), b(7)(c) informing him of the establishment of World College, which is co-educational & deals with undergraduate work, etc.

b(6), b(7)(c) address on his letter was:

World College, 1339 Wisconsin Avenue,
Dumbarton-Street, Georgetown, Washington, D.C.

General Schulz said they planned to answer his letter by saying thanks for writing, extend congrats on formation of World College and hope is successful.

He said would like to know who this fellow is and what the World College is.
