MEMORANDUM

SUBJECT: HSIIEH, Kuoyeng Ngeh
aka HSIIEH, Rosie Ngeh

COPY

E.O. 13526, section 3.3(b)(1)

1. According to a report dated 9 November 1949 [REDACTED]

Wo HSIIEH [REDACTED] a female, native of Formosa, born approximately 1919, was going to the United States, ostensibly as a student, but in reality on a secret mission for the Kuomintang. HSIIEH was described as a medical doctor, educated in Tokyo. She had reportedly been a "stooge" for the Kuomintang for several years.

E.O. 13526, section 3.3(b)(1)

2. According to a report of 31 March 1950 [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Wo HSIIEH, known in the United States (where she was residing on a temporary visa) as Dr. Rosy N. HSIIEH, was known in Taipeh as a pro-Communist. She had been in Peiping, China, after the Peoples Government was formed. She was believed to be still nominally the chairman of the Women's Association of Taiwan.

E.O. 13526, section 3.3(b)(1)

3. According to information dated 12 April 1950 [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] there was no evidence that Wo HSIIEH had gone to Peiping, or that she was pro-Communist. According to [REDACTED] HSIIEH received $5000.00 expense money for her trip to the United States from the Kuomintang.

4. An investigation by the Immigration and Naturalization Service has determined that Wo HSIIEH (aka Rosy N. HSIIEH) is identical with Subject, and the Service has supplied the following information:

a. Dr. HSIIEH, in a sworn statement, has denied ever having been a pro-Communist, or that she came to the United States as an agent of the Kuomintang, stating that she came here for her own personal reasons, and that she paid her own expenses. She readily admits that, prior to coming to the United States, she was a member of the Kuomintang and that she had been Chairman of the Taiwan Women's Association. Interviews with acquaintances of Dr. HSIIEH at her various places of residence in the United States failed to support the pro-Communist charge or that she was a "stooge" for the Kuomintang.
