E.O. 13526, section 3.3(b)(1)

1. According to information dated 1945 [REDACTED] in January 1945 one Antonio LLOBREGAT, a Spaniard, was reportedly an employee of a German firm which held a concession from the Spanish police for the radio location of clandestine radio transmitters. LLOBREGAT's position served as a cover for the operation from his flat of a German Intelligence Service clandestine radio transmitter. In January 1945 LLOBREGAT's address was Ronda de la Universidad 6, first floor, Barcelona.

2. The above information was furnished to the Immigration and Naturalization Service in CSCI-3751494, dated 11 September 1958, Subject: LLOBREGAT-Giner, Antonio. An investigation conducted by the Immigration and Naturalization Service did not establish that Antonio LLOBREGAT was identical with Antonio LLOBREGAT-Giner, subject of private bill S 4190.
