RESOLUTIONS

We, the participants of the anti-communist Manifestation, initiated and organized by the Americans to Free Captive Nations, Inc., held on November 27, 1965, at the High School of Fashion Industries in New York, hereby affirm the following resolution:

These Resolutions were signed by the Representatives of:

America (U.S.A.), Albania, Azerbaijan,
Byelorussia, Bulgaria, Nat. China, Cossackia,
Croatia, Idel-Ural, North Caucas, Poland,
Georgia, Germany, Serbia, Slovakia, Tibet,
Viet Nam and Ukraine.

1. We fully support the U.S. government efforts to put an end to the Soviet Russia and Red China aggression in South Viet Nam whose purpose is to destroy its national freedom and state independence, and to enslave not only its people but other nations in Asia, thus using their defeat as a springboard for seizure of the whole world into Communist slavery.

2. We send our warm greetings to our brave soldiers who heroically fight in the jungles of South Viet Nam for freedom, and appeal to all freedom-loving Americans to manifest your moral support to them by giving your blood to the wounded.

3. In the name of the traditional principles of freedom and democracy, defending the statements of the Bill of Rights, we firmly condemn the Communist followers, blind pacifists, ignorant beatniks, agitated students for their actions against U.S. policy in South Viet Nam which are used by our enemies to morally weaken the U.S.

4. We stand for the peace in the whole world, but we want the just peace that guarantees freedom for all nations and countries. We believe that their peace must be by all means protected, otherwise every appeasement, every concession to the Communist aggression inspires them to further expansion which leads to a new inevitable world's war. The peace can be saved if Soviet Russia and Red China will be constantly aware that we are alert and determined to defend our peace and freedom.

5. Moscow and Peking shamelessly accuse, by their false propaganda and in the statements of their official representatives, the U.S. of their "colonialism" and "imperialism" although they know that the U.S. gained not an inch of foreign territory neither after the First World War nor after the Second World War; that the U.S. ensured no nation, whereas the Soviet Russia and Red China did.

6. We state that freedom and independence of the free countries in the world are threatened by Communist colonial imperialism. In our time of downfall of the colonial empires and rising of the national independence states, the vast Communist colonial empire, under the name of U.S.S.R., still remains; it continuously threatens the whole world and the free countries. This empire exploits brutally not only non-Russian nations within the U.S.S.R., but also nations of so-called "satellites."

7. We testify that the characteristic features of Red Moscow and Red Peking enslavement are the most inhuman and cruel, such as expropriation, expropriation, pauperization, slave labor, suppression of human rights and fundamental freedoms, Russification, terror, murder, mass deportation of the population of the captive nations.

In committing and continuing these acts, Soviet Russia violated the United Nations Charter, the United Nations Declaration, the Atlantic Charter, the Convention on the Suppression of the Crimes on Genocide, and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights -- all these documents bearing the signatures of the U.S.S.R. representatives.

8. Therefore, we request the United Nations, the U.S. government and the U.S. representatives in the United Nations to put on the agenda of its General Assembly the problem of the Soviet-Moscow colonialism in Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Armenia, Georgia, Azerbaijan, Belorussia, Bulgaria, Czechia, Cossackia, East Germany, Hungary, Idel-Ural, Poland, Rumania, Slovakia, North Caucasus, Turkestan, Ukraine, and in other countries subjugated by Communist imperialism such as Albania, Cuba, Tibet, North Viet Nam and North Korea enslaved by Red China. We condemn such colonialism and ask to exclude all Communist governments from the United Nations, and in their stead to admit the authorized representatives of the captive nations.

9. We warn our government and the whole free world against the policy of so-called co-existence which aims at the recognition by the free world of the status quo of Red Russia and Red China conquests as basis for the subversion action in the free world and for their further expansion to enslave free countries.

10. We support the Public Law 86-90 of the Captive Nations Week resolution of the U.S. Congress which expresses sympathy for the aspirations of peoples everywhere and to recognize the independence of the nations of the world and, not Poland, Hungary, Lithuania, Ukraine, Czechia, Slovakia, Latvia, Estonia, White Russia, East Germany, Bulgaria, mainland China, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Georgia, North Korea, Albania, Idel-Ural, Tibet, Cossackia, Turkestan, North Viet Nam and other nations against Communist tyranny and Red Moscow and Red Chinese foreign rule, and urge the re-establishment of their national freedom and state independence. Slovakia should also be recognized as an independent state.

11. We also back up the members of the U.S. Congress in their efforts to establish a standing committee to deal

- with the problems of the captive nations, and to establish a Freedom Academy to serve the cause of their national independence.
- 12. We speak out for the liberation of the Chinese, Koreans, Germans, Vietnamese, and the re-unification of countries and peoples divided by Communist aggressors.
- 13. To warn the Western world against supporting Titoism, which is the Trojan horse of Communism, and to support the re-establishment of the freedom and national independence of the Croatsians, Serbians, Slovenians, and Macedonians, who are now condemned to live under Tito's regime of Communist tyranny.
- 14. We demand a just peace among all the peoples of the world a peace which presupposes the liquidation of every form of national subjugation, and the realization of indivisible freedom the world over.
- 15. We advocate the anti-communist freedom movements everywhere in the world where people are fighting dictatorship and seeking the re-establishment of freedom and independence.
- 16. The nations in Asia and Africa must, by every available means, expose the decline of Communism as an ideology which is outdated, and the collapse of the Communist rule which is brutal in nature, and should make it plain that their national and economic welfare require to thoroughly eradicate any illusion and misconception about Communism in consciousness as well as in fact.
- 17. A global strategy for the advance of freedom should be formulated and adopted to unify all anti-communist efforts of the Free World to defeat Communism. In this global struggle against Communism the national and continental anti-communist efforts should be well coordinated components.
