CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

BE
April 22, 1959

Brigadier General Andrew J. Goodpaster
Staff Secretary
The White House

Dear Andy:

I attach copies of messages 173 through 177, dated 14 April through 21 April, received from the radio team with the Tibetan followers of the Dalai Lama. I am sending these in the somewhat quaint form in which they were received.

You will see from the last messages that the Tibetan resistance is gravely threatened. Since we have had no messages for about 36 hours, it is possible that the radio team is on the march and may be coming into India.

Appropriate replies have been sent to these messages.

Faithfully yours,

Allen W. Dulles
