Veterans Day Open House Friday, November 10, 2006

The Rocky Mountain Region will host an Open House to honor our nation's veterans on November 10, 2006. The general public and all federal employees are also invited to the Open House, where representatives of the National Archives, Veterans Administration, and other agencies will provide information on veterans entitlement benefits, the TRICARE medical program, and a demonstration of how to electronically order copies of military personnel files. NARA will also be showing historical war movies and will be providing behind-the-scenes tours of both the Archives and the Federal Records Center. The genealogy research room in Building 46 will also be open for research.
