

THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES

at BOSTON

TEACHING WITH DOCUMENTS 2014

1/9/2014
Thurs. 6-8 P.M.

Research Methods: Original Records

Work with original records from the Archives, learn research methods, and apply these methods to teaching & learning. This Applications of Research Methods workshop fulfills a requirement for PDPs.

1/23/2014
Thurs. 6-8 P.M.

The People's Martyr

Thomas Wilson Dorr and His 1842 Rhode Island Rebellion. Historian Erik J. Chaput presents his spellbinding new book. The Dorr Rebellion, a revolutionary uprising, was a critical moment in US history, influencing the election of 1860 and Civil War. Books for purchase & signing.

2/6/2014
Thurs. 6-8 P.M.

Best Practices

Mass. History Teacher of the Year Jeanne Lenza, an elementary and middle school teacher in the Waltham Public Schools, will share materials & strategies for teaching and learning in the social studies classroom. Get ready for some fun!

3/6/2014
Thurs. 6-8 P.M.

We Came From . . .

Teaching about immigration, migration, and American identity provides important and meaningful opportunities. Using literature, primary sources, and activities, we'll construct historical narratives in the context of immigration.

Free workshops for K-College educators .
To earn 10 PDPs

- Attend five 2-hour workshops.
- "Research Methods" workshop is required.

4/3/2014
Thurs. 6-8 P.M.

Teaching about the Holocaust

Shoah (שואה) means catastrophe, calamity, devastation, tumult. How do we teach about the Holocaust and the lessons of that catastrophe? Anchored in the documentary Night & Fog, the materials, activities, and conversation will address this important and difficult subject. Please note: the content may be explicit.

5/1/2014
Thurs. 6-8 P.M.

21st c. Access to Historical Records

Bring your laptops (or work in our lab) to explore online resources and create computer-based activities using DocsTeach and other initiatives from the National Archives.

6/5/2014
Thurs. 6-8 P.M.

Research Methods: Original Records

Work with original records from the Archives, learn research methods, and apply these methods to teaching & learning. This Applications of Research Methods workshop fulfills a requirement for PDPs.

Summer 2014

Summer Institutes

Free & fun multi-day workshops!

July 9-10 A City of Neighborhoods: The Changing Face of Boston. 2-day workshop about immigration in conjunction with the Leventhal Map Center, Boston Public Library. Takes place at Boston Public Library.

July 21-25 Primarily Teaching. Weeklong workshop of presentations, independent research with original documents, and curriculum development. Takes place at National Archives at Boston, Waltham, MA.

FREE. REGISTRATION REQUESTED.

- Call 781-663-0126 or Email boston.education@nara.gov
- Visit online at www.archives.gov/education

NATIONAL ARCHIVES AT BOSTON ▪ 380 TRAPELO ROAD ▪ WALTHAM, MASSACHUSETTS 02452

