

ANATOMY OF A DOCSTEACH DOCUMENT

The screenshot shows a Docsteach document page. At the top, there is a blue header with the Docsteach logo and navigation links. Below the header, there are social media sharing icons (Facebook, Twitter, Google+, LinkedIn) and the document title "House Journal of the First Session of the First Congress" with the date "8/21/1789". To the right of the title are icons for star, add, download, and print. Below the title is a large image of a handwritten document page. Below the image is a navigation bar with a left arrow, a series of document thumbnails, and a right arrow. Below the navigation bar is a paragraph of text describing the document. At the bottom of the page, there are buttons for "RETURN TO RESULTS" and "NEXT DOCUMENT", a copyright notice, and a footer with social media links and a subscription form.

Share document on Social Media

Title and date document was created

- Star (save) the document in Your Account
- Add the document to an Activity in Your Account
- Download the Document (in this case, each page separately)
- Print the document along with its details

Zoom in and out of the document to see it more closely.

Note that you can add each page of the document separately to an Activity in Your Account or download it to your computer from this view. One of the pages is hidden behind the > Watch for it. There may be more.

Detailed description drawn from information provided in various National Archives' exhibits and publications, if available. This description is usually more complete than the Online Catalog Description.

This TINY NUMBER will take you to the document in the Online Catalog.

FULL CITATION.