

PART 1. OFFICE OF THE ARCHIVIST OF THE UNITED STATES

ORGANIZATION

1. The Archivist of the United States

The Archivist plans, develops, and administers all programs and functions of the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), in accordance with the National Archives and Records Administration Act of 1984 (44 U.S.C.), as amended, and other applicable statutes, Executive orders, and departmental regulations. The Archivist supervises office heads and staff directors and provides general supervision to the Office of the Inspector General (OIG); the Executive Director, National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC); the Director, Information Security Oversight Office (ISOO); and the Director, Office of Government Information Services (OGIS). The Archivist serves as chair/member of such bodies as required by statute or as the Archivist determines to be in the best interests of NARA.

a. External Affairs Liaison

Plans and executes with the Archivist, Deputy Archivist, and Senior Staff a continuous program of liaison and partnering with allied national professional, scientific, and technical organizations, including:

- (1) Assures that NARA mission, goals, services, and policies are clearly communicated with professional audiences and that all partnering opportunities are appropriately explored and executed.
- (2) Develops an annual plan for contact, coordination, communication, and partnering with key professional, scientific, and technical allied national organizations.
- (3) Establishes working relationships with senior leadership of allied national organizations and maintains regular contact to carry out the goals of the annual liaison plan.
- (4) Conveys the positions, opinions, trends, and direction of the professional allied national organizations to the Archivist, Deputy Archivist, and Senior Staff through both informal and formal means.
- (5) In coordination with NPOL, seeks innovative methods and opportunities to bring external input to NARA's strategic planning, customer relations, and annual regulatory agenda.
- (6) Coordinates policy discussions with external stakeholders, professional associations, and special interest groups and advises the Archivist, Deputy Archivist, and Senior Staff on policy formation based on those discussions.

2. Deputy Archivist of the United States

- a. Acts as the Archivist if the position of Archivist becomes vacant until an Archivist is appointed as provided for in 44 U.S.C. 2103(a), or when the Archivist is unable to perform his or her duties because of absence or disability.
- b. In support of the Archivist, carries out the following activities:
 - (1) Establishes priorities, direction, required resources, staffing and schedule to accomplish the strategic vision and goals of the Archivist of the United States.
 - (2) Ensures that proposed new initiatives support the agency's strategic goals and are fully analyzed to determine the agency's ability to accomplish projects without moving staff and funding support from higher priority efforts.
- c. Directs the staffs in the Office of the Archivist.
- d. Serves as NARA's Regulatory Policy Officer.
- e. Renders final agency decision on equal employment opportunity discrimination complaints.
- f. Serves as the appeal official for determinations made in response to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests for records in the National Archives of the United States and NARA administrative/operational records (except for OIG records), and determinations made in response to mandatory review requests for records in the National Archives of the United States or in Presidential libraries.
- g. Serves as the NARA Audit Follow-up Official and Audit Resolution Officer.
- h. Serves as the NARA Performance Improvement Officer.

3. Chief of Staff

- a. In support of the Archivist and Deputy Archivist, carries out the following activities:
 - (1) Establishes priorities, direction, required resources, staffing, and schedule to accomplish the strategic vision and goals of the Archivist of the United States.
 - (2) Ensures that proposed new initiatives support the agency's strategic goals and are fully analyzed to determine the agency's ability to accomplish projects without moving staff and funding support from higher priority efforts.

- b. Directs the secretariat functions in the Office of the Archivist, assigning projects, coordinating requests for meetings for and with the Archivist, coordinating the staffing for meetings and proposed travel by the Archivist, and ensuring appropriate records management practices are carried out.
- c. Assists the Deputy Archivist in directing the staffs in the Office of the Archivist.

4. Policy and Planning Staff

a. Policy and Planning

Provides staff support to the Archivist and the Deputy Archivist and other senior management officials, as required, in the following areas:

- (1) Coordinates the development, implementation, and review of NARA's Strategic Plan and NARA's implementation of the Government Performance and Results (GPRA) Act of 1993.
- (2) Participates with the Office of Administration's Financial Services Division (NAB) in developing budget statements and justifications. Coordinates drafts of all budget statements and justifications with program offices, when appropriate, and with NAB for approval by the Archivist and submission to OMB and the Congress.
- (3) Formulates, analyzes, and reviews NARA policies and procedures, including internal directives, NARA regulations, and external policies and communications with agencies; implements the Regulatory Negotiation Act; and serves as NARA's regulatory docket office.
- (4) Prepares draft documents for the Archivist's approval to establish and terminate NARA committees, and tracks their existence as the recordkeeping body for their records. As NARA's Committee Management Officer, ensures NARA compliance with the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Pub. L. 92-463); and implements the Government in the Sunshine Act.
