

NATIONAL ARCHIVES

VIA EMAIL

(LM 2014-102)

December 31, 2014

The Honorable W. Neil Eggleston
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20502

Dear Mr. Eggleston:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to the incumbent President of our intent to open George H.W. Bush Presidential records in response to the systematic processing projects listed in Attachment A.

This material, consisting of 32,464 pages, has been reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions, resulting in a total of 18,365 pages restricted. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 14,099 pages. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing former President Bush's representative, James W. Cicconi, of our intent to release these records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is March 31, 2015, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this request, please contact me at (202) 357-5144 or NARA General Counsel Gary M. Stern at (301) 837-3026.

Sincerely,

NATIONAL ARCHIVES and RECORDS ADMINISTRATION

700 PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, NW
WASHINGTON, DC 20408-0001

www.archives.gov

B. JOHN LASTER
DIRECTOR
Presidential Materials Division

Enclosure

ATTACHMENT A

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2012-3138-S	NSC—Barry Lowenkron files	5,200	3,748	1,452

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of National Security Council staff member Barry Lowenkron's files. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are forms, memoranda, press materials, and cables. These materials consist of transmittal forms routing other materials; routine memoranda and press materials (releases, Q & As) related to Bush Administration officials' foreign travel, U.S.-Canada trade, Reagan-Bush transition, U.S.-German relations, U.S.-Soviet relations, and routine topics related to Italy, Greece, and Greenland; and unclassified cables relating to travel.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0832-S	Burns/Hewett files	17,200	8,784	8,416

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of chronological files and subject files maintained by Nicholas Burns and by Nicholas Burns/Ed Hewett relating to the former Soviet Union. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are correspondence, press releases, printed material, remarks, and reports. These materials consist of internal correspondence that route other documents and discuss administrative issues such as meeting and travel arrangements. There is also external correspondence with other federal agencies and with the legislative branch discussing issues such as diplomatic relations and trade with former Soviet republics, humanitarian aid, agriculture in Russia, Soviet military forces in the Baltics, and human rights, as well as letters to President Bush from private citizens addressing humanitarian aid, U.S. policy, and trade and investment with the former Soviet Union. In addition, there are press releases containing fact sheets and statements regarding various topics, including humanitarian aid, the establishment of diplomatic relations with former Soviet Republics, the creation of a US-Russian POW/MIA Commission, agricultural assistance, and trade relations; and printed material consisting of clippings on issues related to the former Soviet Union. Finally, there are remarks by President Bush, Secretary James Baker, and other officials on topics such as humanitarian assistance to and U.S. relations with the former Soviet Republics; and unclassified reports written by various government agencies, private organizations, and private citizens discussing various aspects of U.S. relations with the former Soviet Republics.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0869-S	Randy Beers meeting files	1,800	1,543	257

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of files maintained by Randy Beers relating to meetings involving the National Security Council in 1989. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are cover sheets, correspondence, forms, press releases, remarks, a report, and tabs/dividers. These materials consist of cover sheets and internal correspondence that route other documents; correspondence relating to proposed congressional bills, such as the National Defense Authorization Act; administrative forms requesting conference room reservations for meetings; press releases containing press Q&As on a drug summit and an executive order on the President’s Commission on Aviation Security and Terrorism; remarks consisting of a speech by President Bush at an International Drug Enforcement Conference in Miami; an unclassified report from a group of senators relating to the war on drugs; and a large number of blank tabs/dividers that separate other materials.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0873-S	Jeremy Curtin files	322	56	266

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of chronological files maintained by Jeremy Curtin of the National Security Council’s International Programs and Technology Affairs Directorate. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are cover sheets, correspondence, press releases, reports, and talking points. These materials consist of cover sheets and internal correspondence that route other documents; internal correspondence that relates to administration issues, such as meeting arrangements, appointment requests, and requests for presidential statements for USIA exhibits; a press release of a statement by President Bush on human rights in Cuba, and a press release of the unclassified 1988 annual report of the National Endowment for Democracy as submitted to Congress; and talking points for a meeting with the Board for International Broadcasting.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0874-S	Joan Vail files	74	63	11

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of chronological files maintained by Joan Vail of the National Security Council’s International Programs Directorate. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are lists related to the Nixon, Carter, and Reagan administrations. One list compares National Security events for the first year of the administrations and the other records NSC supported events during each administration.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0875-S	Donald Tice files	1	0	1

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of chronological files maintained by Donald Tice of the National Security Council's International Programs Directorate. The Bush Presidential record proposed for opening is a memorandum to Brent Scowcroft from Donald Tice providing notification of Tice's retirement from the Foreign Service.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0877-S	David Gompert files	787	680	107

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of subject files maintained by David Gompert, Senior Director for European and Soviet Affairs for the National Security Council. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are correspondence, memoranda of conversation (memcons), a press release, reports, and schedules. These materials consist of correspondence that route other documents; previously declassified memcons that document President Bush's meetings with EC President Lubbers and Turkish President Ozal; a press release of a U.S. statement on the Franco-German Corps; unclassified reports that consist of a memorandum of understanding with Canada, and a paper regarding U.S. views on GATT; and schedules for U.S.-EC meetings on the Uruguay Round.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0885-S	Donald Mahley files	815	551	264

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of chronological files maintained by Donald Mahley, Director of Defense Policy and Arms Control on the National Security Council. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are cover sheets, correspondence, press releases, printed material, remarks, a report, and talking points. These materials consist of cover sheets and correspondence that route other documents; internal correspondence relating to administrative issues, such as requests for clearance or comments on proposed bills and reports, travel requests, invitations to attend conferences, and requests for meeting, as well as external correspondence from private citizens addressing chemical weapons-control issues; and press releases including a fact sheet on President Bush's chemical weapons initiative and proposed press guidance on chemical weapons issues. In addition, there are printed materials consisting of newspaper clippings on chemical weapons control remarks from President Bush at Fort Myers and at the groundbreaking ceremony for a chemical weapons destruction facility in Utah; a report of a Cornell University Study on European Security and CFE negotiations; and unclassified talking points from the Department of Defense for use during meetings with members of Congress.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0889-S	William Primosch files	2,600	590	2,010

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of files maintained by William Primosch relating to international economic affairs. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are correspondence, lists, press releases, printed material, remarks, and testimonies. These materials consist of internal correspondence that route other documents, as well as requesting comments on proposed legislation related to trade and international economics; meeting participant lists and tables of contents listings; press releases consisting of fact sheets on NAFTA and Export Enhancement programs; printed material containing newspaper clippings on issues such as global economics and trade policy; and President Bush’s remarks addressing trade, the global economy, and NAFTA. Also included are unclassified testimonies before congressional committees by officials from various government departments and agencies, such as State, Commerce, Labor, Transportation, Agriculture, the USTR, and the EPA discussing trade, exports, European economic integration, and NAFTA.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0892-S	Helen Walsh files	250	183	67

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of subject files maintained by Helen Walsh of the National Security Council. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are cover sheets, correspondence, press releases, and printed material. These materials consist of cover sheets and correspondence that route other documents; correspondence consisting of meeting invitations, unclassified cables related to international monetary and banking issues, and a letter from Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC) regarding safe business opportunities in the former Soviet Union; press releases including a statement on a Japanese stimulus package and a G-7 statement on the Paris Club’s rescheduling of Russia’s debt; and printed material containing clippings on World Bank loans and Russian privatization vouchers.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0893-S	Peter Rodman files	2,250	1,094	1,156

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of subject files maintained by Peter Rodman, Special Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs and National Security Council Counselor. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are cover sheets, correspondence, printed material, remarks, reports, and talking points. These materials consist of cover sheets and internal correspondence that route other documents; internal correspondence relating to administrative issues, including travel and meeting arrangements; and printed material consisting of news clippings on international issues such as the Sandinista-Contra cease-fire talks, the PLO, the Mideast Peace Talks, Soviet-Israeli ties and human rights. Also included are President Bush’s remarks addressing Central America, the UN, and separation of powers in the federal government, as well as several Brent Scowcroft speeches on foreign relations, testimony to Congress regarding military education, and a speech by King Hussein on foreign relations; reports that include a proposed executive order on the Enterprise for the America Initiative and a paper from the National Defense University Transition Planning Committee; and unclassified talking points for President Bush to use in addressing Congress and the media discussing issues such as Central America and Soviet policy.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0898-S	Jim Woolsey files	1,165	1,073	92

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of subject files maintained by Jim Woolsey of the National Security Council. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are cover sheets, correspondence, printed material, reports, and statements. These materials consist of cover sheets and correspondence that route other documents; additional correspondence consisting of a letter to Brent Scowcroft regarding a proposed USIA action program for Eastern Europe and a note from a representative of AT&T regarding security of technology systems; printed material including news clippings on nuclear testing talks with the Soviets; reports containing a paper outlining the organization of the National Security Council and the published 1987 National Security Strategy of the United States; and statements consisting of a 1989 presidential statement on the anniversary of the construction of the Berlin Wall and a public statement on the “No Exceptions” policy.

###

NATIONAL ARCHIVES

VIA EMAIL
(LM 2014-102)

December 31, 2014

James W. Cicconi
Suite 1000
1120 20th Street, NW
Washington, D.C. 20036

Dear Mr. Cicconi:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to you, as former President Bush's representative, of our intent to open Bush Presidential records in response to the systematic processing projects listed in Attachment A.

This material, consisting of 32,464 pages, has been reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions, resulting in a total of 18,365 pages restricted. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 14,099 pages. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing the incumbent President of our intent to release these Bush Presidential records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is March 31, 2015, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this request, please contact me at (202) 357-5144 or NARA General Counsel Gary M. Stern at (301) 837-3026.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "B. John Laster". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial "B" and a stylized "L".

B. JOHN LASTER
DIRECTOR
Presidential Materials Division

Enclosures

ATTACHMENT A

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2012-3138-S	NSC—Barry Lowenkron files	5,200	3,748	1,452

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of National Security Council staff member Barry Lowenkron's files. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are forms, memoranda, press materials, and cables. These materials consist of transmittal forms routing other materials; routine memoranda and press materials (releases, Q & As) related to Bush Administration officials' foreign travel, U.S.-Canada trade, Reagan-Bush transition, U.S.-German relations, U.S.-Soviet relations, and routine topics related to Italy, Greece, and Greenland; and unclassified cables relating to travel.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0832-S	Burns/Hewett files	17,200	8,784	8,416

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of chronological files and subject files maintained by Nicholas Burns and by Nicholas Burns/Ed Hewett relating to the former Soviet Union. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are correspondence, press releases, printed material, remarks, and reports. These materials consist of internal correspondence that route other documents and discuss administrative issues such as meeting and travel arrangements. There is also external correspondence with other federal agencies and with the legislative branch discussing issues such as diplomatic relations and trade with former Soviet republics, humanitarian aid, agriculture in Russia, Soviet military forces in the Baltics, and human rights, as well as letters to President Bush from private citizens addressing humanitarian aid, U.S. policy, and trade and investment with the former Soviet Union. In addition, there are press releases containing fact sheets and statements regarding various topics, including humanitarian aid, the establishment of diplomatic relations with former Soviet Republics, the creation of a US-Russian POW/MIA Commission, agricultural assistance, and trade relations; and printed material consisting of clippings on issues related to the former Soviet Union. Finally, there are remarks by President Bush, Secretary James Baker, and other officials on topics such as humanitarian assistance to and U.S. relations with the former Soviet Republics; and unclassified reports written by various government agencies, private organizations, and private citizens discussing various aspects of U.S. relations with the former Soviet Republics.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0869-S	Randy Beers meeting files	1,800	1,543	257

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of files maintained by Randy Beers relating to meetings involving the National Security Council in 1989. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are cover sheets, correspondence, forms, press releases, remarks, a report, and tabs/dividers. These materials consist of cover sheets and internal correspondence that route other documents; correspondence relating to proposed congressional bills, such as the National Defense Authorization Act; administrative forms requesting conference room reservations for meetings; press releases containing press Q&As on a drug summit and an executive order on the President’s Commission on Aviation Security and Terrorism; remarks consisting of a speech by President Bush at an International Drug Enforcement Conference in Miami; an unclassified report from a group of senators relating to the war on drugs; and a large number of blank tabs/dividers that separate other materials.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0873-S	Jeremy Curtin files	322	56	266

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of chronological files maintained by Jeremy Curtin of the National Security Council’s International Programs and Technology Affairs Directorate. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are cover sheets, correspondence, press releases, reports, and talking points. These materials consist of cover sheets and internal correspondence that route other documents; internal correspondence that relates to administration issues, such as meeting arrangements, appointment requests, and requests for presidential statements for USIA exhibits; a press release of a statement by President Bush on human rights in Cuba, and a press release of the unclassified 1988 annual report of the National Endowment for Democracy as submitted to Congress; and talking points for a meeting with the Board for International Broadcasting.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0874-S	Joan Vail files	74	63	11

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of chronological files maintained by Joan Vail of the National Security Council’s International Programs Directorate. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are lists related to the Nixon, Carter, and Reagan administrations. One list compares National Security events for the first year of the administrations and the other records NSC supported events during each administration.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0875-S	Donald Tice files	1	0	1

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of chronological files maintained by Donald Tice of the National Security Council's International Programs Directorate. The Bush Presidential record proposed for opening is a memorandum to Brent Scowcroft from Donald Tice providing notification of Tice's retirement from the Foreign Service.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0877-S	David Gompert files	787	680	107

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of subject files maintained by David Gompert, Senior Director for European and Soviet Affairs for the National Security Council. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are correspondence, memoranda of conversation (memcons), a press release, reports, and schedules. These materials consist of correspondence that route other documents; previously declassified memcons that document President Bush's meetings with EC President Lubbers and Turkish President Ozal; a press release of a U.S. statement on the Franco-German Corps; unclassified reports that consist of a memorandum of understanding with Canada, and a paper regarding U.S. views on GATT; and schedules for U.S.-EC meetings on the Uruguay Round.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0885-S	Donald Mahley files	815	551	264

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of chronological files maintained by Donald Mahley, Director of Defense Policy and Arms Control on the National Security Council. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are cover sheets, correspondence, press releases, printed material, remarks, a report, and talking points. These materials consist of cover sheets and correspondence that route other documents; internal correspondence relating to administrative issues, such as requests for clearance or comments on proposed bills and reports, travel requests, invitations to attend conferences, and requests for meeting, as well as external correspondence from private citizens addressing chemical weapons-control issues; and press releases including a fact sheet on President Bush's chemical weapons initiative and proposed press guidance on chemical weapons issues. In addition, there are printed materials consisting of newspaper clippings on chemical weapons control remarks from President Bush at Fort Myers and at the groundbreaking ceremony for a chemical weapons destruction facility in Utah; a report of a Cornell University Study on European Security and CFE negotiations; and unclassified talking points from the Department of Defense for use during meetings with members of Congress.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0889-S	William Primosch files	2,600	590	2,010

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of files maintained by William Primosch relating to international economic affairs. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are correspondence, lists, press releases, printed material, remarks, and testimonies. These materials consist of internal correspondence that route other documents, as well as requesting comments on proposed legislation related to trade and international economics; meeting participant lists and tables of contents listings; press releases consisting of fact sheets on NAFTA and Export Enhancement programs; printed material containing newspaper clippings on issues such as global economics and trade policy; and President Bush's remarks addressing trade, the global economy, and NAFTA. Also included are unclassified testimonies before congressional committees by officials from various government departments and agencies, such as State, Commerce, Labor, Transportation, Agriculture, the USTR, and the EPA discussing trade, exports, European economic integration, and NAFTA.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0892-S	Helen Walsh files	250	183	67

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of subject files maintained by Helen Walsh of the National Security Council. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are cover sheets, correspondence, press releases, and printed material. These materials consist of cover sheets and correspondence that route other documents; correspondence consisting of meeting invitations, unclassified cables related to international monetary and banking issues, and a letter from Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC) regarding safe business opportunities in the former Soviet Union; press releases including a statement on a Japanese stimulus package and a G-7 statement on the Paris Club's rescheduling of Russia's debt; and printed material containing clippings on World Bank loans and Russian privatization vouchers.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0893-S	Peter Rodman files	2,250	1,094	1,156

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of subject files maintained by Peter Rodman, Special Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs and National Security Council Counselor. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are cover sheets, correspondence, printed material, remarks, reports, and talking points. These materials consist of cover sheets and internal correspondence that route other documents; internal correspondence relating to administrative issues, including travel and meeting arrangements; and printed material consisting of news clippings on international issues such as the Sandinista-Contra cease-fire talks, the PLO, the Mideast Peace Talks, Soviet-Israeli ties and human rights. Also included are President Bush’s remarks addressing Central America, the UN, and separation of powers in the federal government, as well as several Brent Scowcroft speeches on foreign relations, testimony to Congress regarding military education, and a speech by King Hussein on foreign relations; reports that include a proposed executive order on the Enterprise for the America Initiative and a paper from the National Defense University Transition Planning Committee; and unclassified talking points for President Bush to use in addressing Congress and the media discussing issues such as Central America and Soviet policy.

Case Number	Topic	Pages Processed	Pages Restricted	Pages Proposed for Opening
2014-0898-S	Jim Woolsey files	1,165	1,073	92

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of subject files maintained by Jim Woolsey of the National Security Council. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening are cover sheets, correspondence, printed material, reports, and statements. These materials consist of cover sheets and correspondence that route other documents; additional correspondence consisting of a letter to Brent Scowcroft regarding a proposed USIA action program for Eastern Europe and a note from a representative of AT&T regarding security of technology systems; printed material including news clippings on nuclear testing talks with the Soviets; reports containing a paper outlining the organization of the National Security Council and the published 1987 National Security Strategy of the United States; and statements consisting of a 1989 presidential statement on the anniversary of the construction of the Berlin Wall and a public statement on the “No Exceptions” policy.

###