The Honorable W. Neil Eggleston
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20502

Dear Mr. Eggleston:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to the incumbent President of our intent to open George H.W. Bush Presidential records in response to the systematic processing projects listed in Attachment A.

This material, consisting of 125,800 pages, has been reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions, resulting in a total of 42,297 pages restricted. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 83,503 pages. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing former President Bush's representative, James W. Cicconi, of our intent to release these records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is January 11, 2016, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

2015-0020-S[3]	Nicholas Rostow files	13,800	3,107	10,693

The George Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of the National Security Council files of staff member Nicholas Rostow—1990 Chronological Files. The Bush Presidential records proposed for opening consist of cover sheets, correspondence, legal documents, press releases, remarks, and reports. The cover sheets are routine and route other documents; the correspondence is administrative arrangement for meetings, speaking engagements, travel, and discussions of the functions and responsibilities of the National Security Council. Additional correspondence discusses internal policy and executive and legislative branch offices’ views on proposed legislation, with attached opinion papers and statements before Congressional committees. The legal documents are related to court cases involving the National Security Council and consist of motions, declarations, notices, subpoenas, and affidavits, as well as supporting documentation such as newspaper clippings, speeches, and congressional reports. The press releases include presidential statements on proposed legislation, presidential signing statements, and fact sheets on presidential actions; and the remarks from President Bush include speeches on current issues, such as the Persian Gulf Crisis, as well as departure statements, toasts, and other statements during international travel. The reports are from President Bush to Congress discussing issues such as economic sanctions, emergency declarations, and foreign aid.
