The Honorable W. Neil Eggleston
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20502

Dear Mr. Eggleston:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to the incumbent President of our intent to open George W. Bush Presidential records in response to the systematic processing projects and Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests listed in Attachment A.

This material, consisting of 75,747 pages and 1,516 assets, has been reviewed for the six PRA Presidential restrictive categories, including confidential communications requesting or submitting advice (P5) and material related to appointments to federal office (P2), as they were eased by President George W. Bush on November 15, 2010. These records were also reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions. As a result of this review, 2,678 pages and 585 assets in whole and 2,198 pages and 195 assets in part have been restricted. Therefore, NARA is proposing to open the remaining 70,871 pages and 736 assets in whole and 2,198 pages and 195 assets in part that do not require closure under 44 U.S.C. § 2204. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing former President George W. Bush's representative, Tobi Young, of our intent to release these records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is August 17, 2015, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this notification, please contact me at (202) 357-5144 or NARA General Counsel Gary M. Stern at (301) 837-3026.

Sincerely,

The George W. Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of a segment of records from the White House Office of Records Management Subject Files – FE009 (Proclamations). The records proposed for opening consist of proclamations (and drafts thereof), letters, memoranda, staffing memoranda, notes, faxes, invitations, publications, printed emails, news clippings, and mailing labels. The correspondence includes letters, invitations, and emails from the public, along with publications and news clippings they enclosed, usually requesting a proclamation or inviting President George W. Bush to attend an event. Outgoing correspondence from the White House includes letters, photos, and copies of proclamations sent in response to requests. Also present are internal White House memoranda and notes related to responding to requests. Frequently requested proclamations include Patriot Day; Veterans Day; Martin Luther King, Jr. Federal Holiday; Prayer for Peace; Memorial Day; National Day of Prayer; Mother’s Day; and Father’s Day. Drafts of proclamations and White House staffing memoranda soliciting comments on drafts relate to proclamations issued throughout the Bush Administration including the following: Minority Enterprise Development Week; National Domestic Violence Awareness Month; National Alcohol and Drug Addiction Recovery Month; and Cancer Control Month. The majority of the proclamations celebrate various American holidays, heritages, and anniversaries, or raise awareness regarding personal health and safety.

As a result of this review, NARA has restricted 2,678 pages and 585 assets in whole and 2,198 pages and 195 assets in part. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 68,673 pages and 568 assets in whole and 2,198 pages and 195 assets in part that do not require closure under 44 U.S.C. § 2204. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be made available to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing the incumbent President of our intent to release these George W. Bush Presidential records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is August 17, 2015, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.
