The Honorable David Warrington
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20502

Dear Mr. Warrington:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to the incumbent President of our intent to open George W. Bush Presidential records in response to the systematic processing projects and Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests listed in Attachment A.

These records, consisting of 25,948 pages, 14,479 assets, and 1 video clip have been reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions, resulting in 2,290 pages and 2,359 assets restricted in whole and 725 pages and 2,089 assets restricted in part. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 22,933 pages, 10,031 assets, and 1 video clip in whole, and 725 pages and 2,089 assets in part. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing former President George W. Bush's representative, Freddy Ford, of our intent to release these records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is November 13, 2025, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this notification, please contact me at (202) 357-5091 or NARA General Counsel, Matt Dummermuth, at (202) 357-5145.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "Kathleen Dillon McClure". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Kathleen" being the most prominent.

Sincerely,
KATHLEEN DILLON MCCLURE

2014-0212-F[1]	Records on Khalid Sheikh Mohammed and/or "KSM" and Abu Zubaidah	10,107 assets	1,818 assets in whole; 1,327 assets in part	6,962 assets in whole; 1,327 assets in part

This researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for records on Khalid Sheikh Mohammed and/or "KSM" and Abu Zubaydah and/or Abu Zubaidah. The George W. Bush Presidential electronic records proposed for opening are emails containing speech drafts, memoranda, talking points, fact sheets, news articles, reports, legislation, briefings, and transcripts. Speech drafts focusing on the Global War on Terror (GWOT) given by President George W. Bush, Vice President Richard Cheney, and Assistant to the President for Homeland Security Frances F. Townsend make up the bulk of the records. Also included are drafts of legislation regarding Congressional reauthorization of the Patriot Act and reform within the intelligence community. Additionally, there are interviews with senior White House officials that delve into national security issues and the GWOT, reactions to news articles on national security-related topics, three and five year updates on the GWOT, amicus briefs and other court documents for terrorism-related cases such as Hamdi v Rumsfeld, Padilla v Rumsfeld, and U.S. v. Binyam Muhammad, and transcripts of testimony given before Congress by White House and agency officials regarding terrorism, national security, and intelligence. Finally, the administration's 2004 "Record of Achievement" and 2006 "National Security Strategy of the United States of America," as well as the Department of State's "Country Reports on Terrorism 2005" can be found throughout the records. This includes drafts and edits to the documents as well as the effort to disseminate the reports across the federal government and into state governments, academia, and private enterprise. These materials are from the Automated Records Management System (ARMS), Exchange Email, Exchange Email Restored - 21 Days, Exchange Email Restored - 40 Days, and RNC Personal Storage Table (PST) Search and Access Sets.

Freddy Ford
Office of George W. Bush
2943 SMU Boulevard
Dallas, TX 75205

Dear Mr. Ford:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to you, as former President George W. Bush's representative, of our intent to open George W. Bush Presidential records. These records were processed under the systematic processing projects and Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests described in Attachment A.

These records, consisting of 25,948 pages, 14,479 assets, and 1 video clip have been reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions, resulting in 2,290 pages and 2,359 assets restricted in whole and 725 pages and 2,089 assets restricted in part. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 22,933 pages, 10,031 assets, and 1 video clip in whole, and 725 pages and 2,089 assets in part. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing the incumbent President of our intent to release these George W. Bush Presidential records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is November 13, 2025, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this notification, please contact me at (202) 357-5091 or NARA General Counsel, Matt Dummermuth, at (202) 357-5145.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "Kathleen Dillon McClure". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

This researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for records on Khalid Sheikh Mohammed and/or “KSM” and Abu Zubaydah and/or Abu Zubaidah. The George W. Bush Presidential electronic records proposed for opening are emails containing speech drafts, memoranda, talking points, fact sheets, news articles, reports, legislation, briefings, and transcripts. Speech drafts focusing on the Global War on Terror (GWOT) given by President George W. Bush, Vice President Richard Cheney, and Assistant to the President for Homeland Security Frances F. Townsend make up the bulk of the records. Also included are drafts of legislation regarding Congressional reauthorization of the Patriot Act and reform within the intelligence community. Additionally, there are interviews with senior White House officials that delve into national security issues and the GWOT, reactions to news articles on national security-related topics, three and five year updates on the GWOT, amicus briefs and other court documents for terrorism-related cases such as Hamdi v Rumsfeld, Padilla v Rumsfeld, and U.S. v. Binyam Muhammad, and transcripts of testimony given before Congress by White House and agency officials regarding terrorism, national security, and intelligence. Finally, the administration’s 2004 “Record of Achievement” and 2006 “National Security Strategy of the United States of America,” as well as the Department of State’s “Country Reports on Terrorism 2005” can be found throughout the records. This includes drafts and edits to the documents as well as the effort to disseminate the reports across the federal government and into state governments, academia, and private enterprise. These materials are from the Automated Records Management System (ARMS), Exchange Email, Exchange Email Restored - 21 Days, Exchange Email Restored - 40 Days, and RNC Personal Storage Table (PST) Search and Access Sets.
