The Honorable W. Neil Eggleston
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20502

Dear Mr. Eggleston:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to the incumbent President of our intent to open Cheney Vice Presidential records in response to the systematic processing projects and Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests listed in Attachment A.

This material, consisting of 337 pages, 1,989 electronic files, and 499 photographs, has been reviewed for the six PRA Presidential restrictive categories and all applicable FOIA exemptions. As a result of this review, 62 pages, 1,071 electronic files, and 32 photographs have been restricted. Therefore, NARA is proposing to open the remaining 275 pages, 918 electronic files, and 467 photographs that do not require closure under 44 U.S.C. § 2204. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing former Vice President Cheney's representative, David Addington, and former President George W. Bush's representative, Tobi Young, of our intent to release these records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is January 19, 2017, unless the former President, former Vice President, or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or if the former or incumbent President asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this notification, please contact me at (202) 357-5144 or NARA General Counsel Gary M. Stern at (301) 837-3026.

Sincerely,

2014-0022-F	Office of Domestic Policy records and email messages related to biofuel policy	1,367 electronic files; 337 pages	1,024 electronic files and 46 pages closed in whole; 47 electronic files and 16 pages closed in part	296 electronic files and 275 pages in whole; 47 electronic files and 16 pages in part

This researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for material related to biofuel policy. The Cheney Vice Presidential records proposed for opening include email messages, electronic files, and textual records related to alternative and renewable energy, fuel standards, and biofuel policy formulated during the George W. Bush Administration.

The electronic material in this series consists of publicly available reports and analyses from the CATO Institute, Bernstein Research, the International Strategy and Investment Group (ISI), the Congressional Research Service, the Center for Strategic & International Studies (CSIS), the National Commission on Energy Policy, and the National Economic Council; weekly legislative correspondence summaries containing references to energy policy; and forwarded news articles generally related to biofuel and alternative energy, including pieces on topics such as global warming, offshore oil and gas drilling, the failure of a manure-to-power venture, funding for cellulosic ethanol, and other energy-related issues. There are many emails between staff members responding to these reports and articles. Also present in these electronic records are final drafts of the January 2007 State of the Union address; press statements about the address from various organizations including the National Corn Growers Association, the Competitive Enterprise Institute, and the National Small Business Conference; a State of the Union policy initiatives document distributed to White House staff members; and fact sheets regarding various issues discussed in the 2007 State of the Union address. Additionally, the material includes speeches, memoranda, and other background information on energy-related issues such as fuel standards, ethanol, climate change, and energy legislation. Also included are scheduling emails for an energy briefing with several agencies, White House officials, and members of Congress; background memoranda on a Department of Energy renewable energy conference; a Chevron print ad on energy security/interdependence which appeared in several newspapers and major national magazines; an ethanol market tracker after President Bush's 2007 State of the Union energy initiative; reporting on former Senator Tom Daschle's views on George W. Bush's Alternative Fuels Standard proposed in the 2007 State of the Union address; and data on national Vehicle Miles Traveled (VMT) in 2004-2006.

Textual records include articles and reports on the benefits and impacts of alternative fuels; graphs and drawings of proposed alternative fuel engines from private foundations; letters from energy consulting firms and organizations highlighting the benefits of fuel cell technology; invitations to attend expositions and presentations on alternative energy and fuel cells; letters from domestic policy staff responding to invitations and inquiries from those firms and organizations; informational packets about new energy labs, facilities, and advanced technologies; outside recommendations for renewable fuels legislation; assessments of the impacts of various environmental regulations on fuel supplies; articles and reports regarding fuel cells; and brochures from the Alliance of Automobile Manufacturers on advanced technology vehicles.

These records are from the Office of Domestic Policy within the Office of the Vice President.

Dear Mr. Addington:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to you, as former Vice President Cheney's representative, of our intent to open Cheney Vice Presidential records in response to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests and systematic processing projects listed in Attachment A.

These records, consisting of 337 pages, 1,989 electronic files, and 499 photographs, have been reviewed for the six PRA Presidential restrictive categories and all applicable FOIA exemptions. As a result of this review, 62 pages, 1,071 electronic files, and 32 photographs have been restricted. Therefore, NARA is proposing to open the remaining 275 pages, 918 electronic files, and 467 photographs that do not require closure under 44 U.S.C. § 2204. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be made available to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing the incumbent President and former President George W. Bush's representative, Tobi Young, of our intent to release these records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is January 19, 2017, unless the former President, former Vice President, or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or if the former or incumbent President asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this notification, please contact me at (202) 357-5144 or NARA General Counsel, Gary M. Stern, at (301) 837-3026.
