The Honorable W. Neil Eggleston
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20502

Dear Mr. Eggleston:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to the incumbent President of our intent to open Clinton Presidential records in response to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests listed in Attachment A.

This material, consisting of 371,243 pages and three audiocassettes, has been reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions, resulting in 73,117 pages restricted in whole or part and two audiocassettes restricted in part. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 298,126 pages and one audiocassette in whole, and two audiocassettes in part. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing former President Clinton's representative, Bruce Lindsey, of our intent to release these records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is July 29, 2016, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this request, please contact me at (202) 357-5144 or NARA General Counsel Gary M. Stern at (301) 837-3026.

Sincerely,

2013-0365-F	Infertility, cloning, stem cell, National Bioethics Advisory Commission	26,437	136	26,301

The researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for material related to cloning, stem cells, family planning, in vitro fertilization, infertility, and biomedical research. The Clinton Presidential records proposed for opening consist of both textual and electronic records. The emails have attachments that contain memoranda, press releases, speeches, radio addresses, legislation, Statements of Administration Policy (SAPs), and scheduling concerning the aforementioned topics. These records describe the work of the Clinton Administration to expand family planning services domestically and internationally, legislation on cloning, and agreement on the use of stem cells for research. A majority of the collection concerns the National Bioethics Advisory Commission and their work on cloning and stem cells. The textual records proposed for opening include correspondence, memoranda, drafts, executive orders, press releases, printed emails, faxes, charts, talking points, reports, newspaper clippings, and handwritten notes. These documents highlight the topics of biomedical research, family planning, cloning, and stem cells. Special mention must be made of the numerous drafts of executive orders and charters that led to the creation of the National Bioethics Advisory Commission (NBAC), the extension of its existence, and the appointment of individuals to serve on its governing board. There are also many letters from organizations stating their opposition to the cloning of humans and their support of biomedical research in the fight against debilitating illnesses and diseases. Also included are documents that describe the possibility of federal funding for research involving the use of embryonic stem cells that could conceivably lead to scientific advancements in the treatment of diseases, and documents that describe high level discussions of abortion, coercive family planning practices in the People's Republic of China, and limits to be placed on cloning.

2006-1066-F	White House Counsel vetting procedures utilizing FBI files	13,909	2,203	11,706

This researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act request (FOIA) request for material related to White House Counsel vetting procedures utilizing FBI files, including but not limited to vetting activities carried out by Associate Counsel William H. Kennedy III, Personnel Security Chief Craig Livingstone, and Investigator Anthony B. Marceca. The Clinton Presidential records to be opened consist of textual material from the Counsel's Office and National Security Council (NSC) and also NSC and ARMS emails. This collection contains Counsel's Office records related to the 1996 House Government Reform and Oversight Committee investigation into the White House's handling of FBI files in 1993 and 1994. Material from this period (1993-1994) includes memoranda and guidelines on vetting and clearance procedures, sample questionnaires, and public background search procedures.

Drafts of "Questions for the Record" (QFRs) respond to congressional inquiries into passes and security clearances in 1994. Additional Counsel's Office records concern the 1995 General Accounting Office (GAO) report titled "Personnel Security: Clearance Data for the Executive Office of the President." These materials reflect White House contributions to the report. Materials include the report itself and its drafts, correspondence from Congress and the GAO concerning compliance notes on the methodology used for compiling the report, procedures and analysis of statistics provided to the GAO, and also talking points regarding the report. The collection also contains Counsel's Office records which date to around the 1996 Committee investigation. Correspondence and diagrams concern White House staffer's access to FBI background investigations. Correspondence also concerns file management of FBI records within the White House. Memoranda describe the Committee's document request. Counsel's Office material dating primarily to 2000 concern the White House's right to use IRS and FBI vetting materials and also transfer these materials to the National Archives. This material includes memoranda, publications, handwritten notes, draft statements, forms, and correspondence. Remaining Counsel's Office material includes memoranda and notes regarding vetting procedures in the Counsel's Office, such as alternatives for future vetting. Additional Clinton Presidential records to be opened consist of NSC records and ARMS emails. NSC staff files and NSC emails include correspondence related to personnel security, approval for White House passes, monitoring personnel security and passes, and changes in personnel security procedure following "Filegate". ARMS emails from Craig Livingstone discuss background or vetting investigations involving the FBI or FBI files. ARMS material also includes an email sent to Craig Livingstone from Counsel staff discussing vetting procedures.

2006-0319-F (segment 2)	Monica Lewinsky	26,417	6,143	20,274

This researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for material related to Monica Lewinsky (this is the second and final segment of this case). The Clinton Presidential records proposed for opening consist of both textual and electronic records. Textual records describe Lewinsky's employment in the White House, children's and young adults' correspondence to President Clinton concerning Lewinsky, and the investigation into President Clinton's relationship with Lewinsky. Records related to Lewinsky's job duties include email correspondence, form letters addressing constituent concerns, request forms for photographs, resumes, and telephone lists. Also present is correspondence regarding compliance and lists regarding search terms and availability of responsive documents, describing the document request phase of the investigation. White House Counsel files contain various Bates numbered document production sets that were prepared for the Office of Independent Counsel, namely Shelli Peterson's set of textual records and Kathy Ruemmler and Jason Wilson's sets of printed email. Counsel records also consist of background material such as the Starr Referral (along with its Appendices and Document Supplements), House Judiciary Committee reports and transcripts, and released court documents. The electronic records include responsive email sent and received by user account Monica S Lewinsky, and user account mlewinsk, and email containing the search term "lewinsky" within the text field. Most of the email within this segment is general office correspondence within the Office of Legislative Affairs, the office where Lewinsky was employed from November 1995 until April 1996. However, some responsive emails within this segment were created as early as July 1995, when she was employed as an intern for the Chief of Staff's Office, and as late as February 1997, when she was employed at the Pentagon. Other material includes printouts of WAVES files and one record noting holiday cards sent to Lewinsky in 1996 and 1997.

2007-1550-F (segment 1)	Global AIDS crisis	50,865	3,922	46,943

This researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for records regarding the AIDS pandemic. The Clinton Presidential records proposed for opening include correspondence, memoranda, talking points, drafts, invitations, background material, agendas and minutes, executive orders, speeches, informational packets, travel documents, emails, cables, reports, and press materials regarding a variety of issues related to the fight against HIV/AIDS. The topics addressed include the Haitian detention crisis, the federal budget, foreign aid, collaboration with other governments, international agencies (such as WHO and the UN) and NGOs; and international conferences. Other material relates to a presidential mission to Africa; pharmaceutical companies; tuberculosis; individual countries; and some crossover domestic issues, such as dealing with HIV positive persons in the US military and the inclusion of the virus as an excludable illness under the Immigration and Naturalization Act. Most of these records are from the National AIDS Policy Office. Much of the earlier material deals with the formation and establishment of the National AIDS Policy Office and resolving the problem of mass migration of mostly HIV-positive Haitians. A majority of material in the latter half of the Clinton Administration focuses on prevention of new cases and care for those who are already positive as well as a search for a vaccine/cure for the disease. Most of the foreign policy records relate to the destructive impact of the virus in Sub-Saharan Africa and international aid to that region as well as dealing with the Haitian detention crisis. There is particular emphasis on the growing presence of AIDS in the African subcontinent and the ever-expanding need for cheaper and better drugs to treat those already sick.

Bruce R. Lindsey
William J. Clinton Foundation
1200 President Clinton Avenue
Little Rock, Arkansas 72201

Dear Mr. Lindsey:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to you, as former President Clinton's representative, of our intent to open Clinton Presidential records in response to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests listed in Attachment A.

This material, consisting of 371,243 pages and three audiocassettes, has been reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions, resulting in 73,117 pages restricted in whole or part and two audiocassettes restricted in part. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 298,126 pages and one audiocassette in whole, and two audiocassettes in part. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing the incumbent President of our intent to release these Clinton Presidential records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is July 29, 2016, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this request, please contact me at (202) 357-5144 or NARA General Counsel Gary M. Stern at (301) 837-3026.

Sincerely,

The researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for material related to cloning, stem cells, family planning, in vitro fertilization, infertility, and biomedical research. The Clinton Presidential records proposed for opening consist of both textual and electronic records. The emails have attachments that contain memoranda, press releases, speeches, radio addresses, legislation, Statements of Administration Policy (SAPs), and scheduling concerning the aforementioned topics. These records describe the work of the Clinton Administration to expand family planning services domestically and internationally, legislation on cloning, and agreement on the use of stem cells for research. A majority of the collection concerns the National Bioethics Advisory Commission and their work on cloning and stem cells. The textual records proposed for opening include correspondence, memoranda, drafts, executive orders, press releases, printed emails, faxes, charts, talking points, reports, newspaper clippings, and handwritten notes. These documents highlight the topics of biomedical research, family planning, cloning, and stem cells. Special mention must be made of the numerous drafts of executive orders and charters that led to the creation of the National Bioethics Advisory Commission (NBAC), the extension of its existence, and the appointment of individuals to serve on its governing board. There are also many letters from organizations stating their opposition to the cloning of humans and their support of biomedical research in the fight against debilitating illnesses and diseases. Also included are documents that describe the possibility of federal funding for research involving the use of embryonic stem cells that could conceivably lead to scientific advancements in the treatment of diseases, and documents that describe high level discussions of abortion, coercive family planning practices in the People's Republic of China, and limits to be placed on cloning.

This researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act request (FOIA) request for material related to White House Counsel vetting procedures utilizing FBI files, including but not limited to vetting activities carried out by Associate Counsel William H. Kennedy III, Personnel Security Chief Craig Livingstone, and Investigator Anthony B. Marceca. The Clinton Presidential records to be opened consist of textual material from the Counsel's Office and National Security Council (NSC) and also NSC and ARMS emails. This collection contains Counsel's Office records related to the 1996 House Government Reform and Oversight Committee investigation into the White House's handling of FBI files in 1993 and 1994. Material from this period (1993-1994) includes memoranda and guidelines on vetting and clearance procedures, sample questionnaires, and public background search procedures.

Drafts of "Questions for the Record" (QFRs) respond to congressional inquiries into passes and security clearances in 1994. Additional Counsel's Office records concern the 1995 General Accounting Office (GAO) report titled "Personnel Security: Clearance Data for the Executive Office of the President." These materials reflect White House contributions to the report. Materials include the report itself and its drafts, correspondence from Congress and the GAO concerning compliance notes on the methodology used for compiling the report, procedures and analysis of statistics provided to the GAO, and also talking points regarding the report. The collection also contains Counsel's Office records which date to around the 1996 Committee investigation. Correspondence and diagrams concern White House staffer's access to FBI background investigations. Correspondence also concerns file management of FBI records within the White House. Memoranda describe the Committee's document request. Counsel's Office material dating primarily to 2000 concern the White House's right to use IRS and FBI vetting materials and also transfer these materials to the National Archives. This material includes memoranda, publications, handwritten notes, draft statements, forms, and correspondence. Remaining Counsel's Office material includes memoranda and notes regarding vetting procedures in the Counsel's Office, such as alternatives for future vetting. Additional Clinton Presidential records to be opened consist of NSC records and ARMS emails. NSC staff files and NSC emails include correspondence related to personnel security, approval for White House passes, monitoring personnel security and passes, and changes in personnel security procedure following "Filegate". ARMS emails from Craig Livingstone discuss background or vetting investigations involving the FBI or FBI files. ARMS material also includes an email sent to Craig Livingstone from Counsel staff discussing vetting procedures.

This researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for material related to Monica Lewinsky (this is the second and final segment of this case). The Clinton Presidential records proposed for opening consist of both textual and electronic records. Textual records describe Lewinsky's employment in the White House, children's and young adults' correspondence to President Clinton concerning Lewinsky, and the investigation into President Clinton's relationship with Lewinsky. Records related to Lewinsky's job duties include email correspondence, form letters addressing constituent concerns, request forms for photographs, resumes, and telephone lists. Also present is correspondence regarding compliance and lists regarding search terms and availability of responsive documents, describing the document request phase of the investigation. White House Counsel files contain various Bates numbered document production sets that were prepared for the Office of Independent Counsel, namely Shelli Peterson's set of textual records and Kathy Ruemmler and Jason Wilson's sets of printed email. Counsel records also consist of background material such as the Starr Referral (along with its Appendices and Document Supplements), House Judiciary Committee reports and transcripts, and released court documents. The electronic records include responsive email sent and received by user account Monica S Lewinsky, and user account mlewinsk, and email containing the search term "lewinsky" within the text field. Most of the email within this segment is general office correspondence within the Office of Legislative Affairs, the office where Lewinsky was employed from November 1995 until April 1996. However, some responsive emails within this segment were created as early as July 1995, when she was employed as an intern for the Chief of Staff's Office, and as late as February 1997, when she was employed at the Pentagon. Other material includes printouts of WAVES files and one record noting holiday cards sent to Lewinsky in 1996 and 1997.

This researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for records regarding the AIDS pandemic. The Clinton Presidential records proposed for opening include correspondence, memoranda, talking points, drafts, invitations, background material, agendas and minutes, executive orders, speeches, informational packets, travel documents, emails, cables, reports, and press materials regarding a variety of issues related to the fight against HIV/AIDS. The topics addressed include the Haitian detention crisis, the federal budget, foreign aid, collaboration with other governments, international agencies (such as WHO and the UN) and NGOs; and international conferences. Other material relates to a presidential mission to Africa; pharmaceutical companies; tuberculosis; individual countries; and some crossover domestic issues, such as dealing with HIV positive persons in the US military and the inclusion of the virus as an excludable illness under the Immigration and Naturalization Act. Most of these records are from the National AIDS Policy Office. Much of the earlier material deals with the formation and establishment of the National AIDS Policy Office and resolving the problem of mass migration of mostly HIV-positive Haitians. A majority of material in the latter half of the Clinton Administration focuses on prevention of new cases and care for those who are already positive as well as a search for a vaccine/cure for the disease. Most of the foreign policy records relate to the destructive impact of the virus in Sub-Saharan Africa and international aid to that region as well as dealing with the Haitian detention crisis. There is particular emphasis on the growing presence of AIDS in the African subcontinent and the ever-expanding need for cheaper and better drugs to treat those already sick.
