The Honorable Donald F. McGahn, II
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20502

Dear Mr. McGahn:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to the incumbent President of our intent to open Clinton Presidential records in response to the systematic processing projects listed in Attachment A.

These records, consisting of 62,053 pages, have been reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions, resulting in 356 pages restricted in whole or in part. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 61,697 pages. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing former President Clinton's representative, Bruce Lindsey, of our intent to release these records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is December 13, 2018, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this request, please contact me at (202) 357-5144 or NARA General Counsel Gary M. Stern at (301) 837-3026.

Sincerely,

2017-1120-S	Irene Bueno, Domestic Policy Council	43,730	82	43,648

The Clinton Presidential Library has completed the systematic processing of the files of Irene Bueno, who served as Special Assistant to the President in the Chief of Staff's Office and on the Domestic Policy Council from 1999 to 2001. Bueno worked on immigration issues during her tenure in the White House. The Clinton Presidential records in this collection cover a wide range of immigration issues, including work visa programs, civil rights, race relations, crime, immigrant literacy, naturalization, health issues, and immigration reform legislation. Other topics in this collection include Limited English Proficiency (LEP), federal public benefits, Deferred Enforced Departure (DED), Temporary Protected Statues (TPS), FIX 96 (immigrant concerns of 1996 legislation that restricted rights and benefits of immigrants), human rights, human trafficking, and welfare. The material contains letters, memoranda, reports, email, books, publications, pamphlets, and handwritten notes.

2018-0525-S	Diana Fortuna, Domestic Policy Council	18,323	274	18,049

The Clinton Presidential Library has completed the systematic processing of the files of Diana Fortuna, who served as Senior Policy Analyst in the Domestic Policy Council from 1995 to 1996, and as Associate Director from 1997 to 1998. Fortuna worked on domestic policy issues focusing on children and child care, disability, education, immigration, labor, and welfare. The Clinton Presidential records proposed for opening include material regarding the President's Summit for America's Future, held in Philadelphia, PA, from April 27-29, 1997. The Summit was convened by President Clinton and former President George H.W. Bush, and chaired by General Colin Powell. As a result of the Summit, America's Promise Alliance was formed, a program focused on at-risk youth. This material contains letters, memoranda, reports, email, publications, pamphlets, newspaper clippings, and handwritten notes.

NARA is proposing to open the remaining 61,697 pages. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing the incumbent President of our intent to release these Clinton Presidential records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is December 13, 2018, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this request, please contact me at (202) 357-5144 or NARA General Counsel Gary M. Stern at (301) 837-3026.

Sincerely,
