The Honorable Pat A. Cipollone
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20502

Dear Mr. Cipollone:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to the incumbent President of our intent to open Clinton Presidential records in response to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests listed in Attachment A.

These records, consisting of 33,502 pages and 316,363 electronic assets, have been reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions, resulting in 3,660 pages and 316,363 electronic assets restricted in whole or in part. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 29,842 pages and 316,363 electronic assets in whole or part. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing former President Clinton's representative, Bruce Lindsey, of our intent to release these records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is January 7, 2020, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this request, please contact me at (202) 357-5144 or NARA General Counsel Gary M. Stern at (301) 837-3026.

Sincerely,

2018-0126-F	Worker and Visitor Entry System Access Control Records (WAVES ACR)	316,363 electronic assets	316,363 electronic assets in part	316,363 electronic assets in part

This researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for WAVES ACR records from January 20, 1993 through January 20, 2001. Records that were responsive to this FOIA request were found in Clinton Presidential Records: Worker and Visitor Entry System (WAVES). This collection consists entirely of records that were copied and arranged from the White House Worker and Visitor Entry System Access Control Records (WAVES ACR) dataset. The Worker and Visitor Entry System Access Control Record (WAVES ACR) database is a log of entry and exit recorded at ACR posts within the White House and is arranged by name of visitor there-under by date. Responsive records were isolated from the WAVES ACR database and then copied to Microsoft EXCEL sheets. It consists of 1 folder and 9 electronic files arranged by date (1993-2001). The collection consists of an estimated 316,363 electronic pages.

2018-0764-F	Sandra Thurman	31,454	3,659	27,795

This researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for all material related to the files of Sandra Thurman, National AIDS Policy Office, 1997-2001. The Clinton Presidential records proposed for opening primarily consist of correspondence and supporting material describing efforts to combat AIDS at the local, state, and federal levels of government. The material also describes efforts of other AIDS organizations not directly associated with government (including international groups) and correspondence from citizens discussing the role of AIDS in their personal life. Thurman's files also contain material that is administrative in nature (such as forms and resumes), materials describing conferences and events (such as invitations and event publications), and also material on AIDS related issues (such as articles, press, reports, statements, and talking points). Topics related to HIV/AIDS in the collection include access to healthcare, the Congressional Black Caucus, funding, global intervention strategies, housing, incarcerated populations, legislative efforts, the impact of new medications, the role of mental health and substance abuse, prevention of transmission, racial and ethnic disparities, private and public research, the Ryan White CARE Act Program, the effectiveness of surveillance systems, testing technologies, treatment, and vaccine research initiatives.

Dear Mr. Lindsey:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to you, as former President Clinton's representative, of our intent to open Clinton Presidential records in response to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests listed in Attachment A.

This material, consisting of 33,502 pages and 316,363 electronic assets, has been reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions, resulting in 3,660 pages and 316,363 electronic assets restricted in whole or part. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 29,842 pages and 316,363 electronic assets in whole or part. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing the incumbent President of our intent to release these Clinton Presidential records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is January 7, 2020, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this request, please contact me at (202) 357-5144 or NARA General Counsel Gary M. Stern at (301) 837-3026.

Sincerely,
