The Honorable Pat A. Cipollone
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C.  20502

Dear Mr. Cipollone:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to the incumbent President of our intent to open Clinton Presidential records in response to the systematic processing projects listed in Attachment A.

These records, consisting of 43,738 pages, have been reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions, resulting in 667 pages restricted in whole or in part. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 43,071 pages. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing former President Clinton’s representative, Bruce Lindsey, of our intent to release these records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is May 12, 2020, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.
If you have any questions relating to this request, please contact me at (202) 357-5144 or NARA General Counsel Gary M. Stern at (301) 837-3026.

Sincerely,

B. JOHN LASTER
DIRECTOR

The Clinton Presidential Library has completed the systematic processing of Segment 2 of this collection, which contains the files of Todd Stern, who served as Assistant to the President, Staff Secretary from 1995 to 1998. The Staff Secretary records in this collection cover three broad subject areas: the confirmation of Alexis Herman as Labor Secretary in 1997, Stern’s role as climate change coordinator, and various Stern subject files which mostly include his schedules and calendars. The records contain letters, memoranda, reports, speeches, schedules and calendars, newspaper articles, and handwritten notes.

The Clinton Presidential Library has completed the systematic processing of Deborah Akel’s files. Akel served as Special Assistant for Communications in the Office of Communications from 1999-2001, and her primary job was to create Daily Talking Points (a one-page summary of President Clinton’s message event of the day). The talking points were used as an amplification tool for President Clinton’s message and a briefing tool for the reader. She also worked on the redesign and maintenance of the White House’s website, created weekly amplifications reports, and put together Earth Day briefing materials. The records include memoranda, emails, fact sheets, articles, talking points, faxes, reports, Q&As, notes, and a VHS tape.

NARA is proposing to open the remaining 43,071 pages. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing the incumbent President of our intent to release these Clinton Presidential records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is May 12, 2020, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.
If you have any questions relating to this request, please contact me at (202) 357-5144 or NARA General Counsel Gary M. Stern at (301) 837-3026.

Sincerely,
