The Honorable Stuart Delery
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20502

Dear Mr. Delery:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to the incumbent President of our intent to open Clinton Presidential records for the systematic processing cases listed in Attachment A.

This material, consisting of 104,004 pages, has been reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions, resulting in 250 pages restricted in whole or part. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 103,754 pages. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing former President Clinton's representative, Bruce Lindsey, of our intent to release these records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is May 30, 2023, unless the former or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this request, please contact me at (202) 357-5091 or NARA General Counsel Gary M. Stern at (301) 837-3026.

Sincerely,

2020-0317-S	Margy Waller Domestic Policy Council Files	34,928 pages	45 pages	34,883 pages

This collection contains the files of Margy Waller, Associate Director for Domestic Policy for the Domestic Policy Council from 2000-2001, where she served as Senior Advisor for Welfare and Working Families. Waller's primary job was to provide advice, edits, and liaison between agencies, the White House, and congressional staff members for federal rules and regulations that related to welfare reform. This collection highlights Waller's work on Clinton Administration initiatives that involved family issues including fatherhood, TANF (Temporary Assistance for Needy Families), child support, and HUD (Department of Housing and Urban Development) affordable housing proposals. Other topics highlighted in this collection are homelessness, welfare-to-work initiatives, charitable choice, SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program) benefits, food stamp benefits, and family issues. The records include correspondence from members of Congress, federal agencies, and the non-profit community, emails, Q&A's, radio address transcripts, speech transcripts, draft radio address and speeches, fact sheets, press releases, faxes, memoranda, news articles, newspaper clippings, handwritten notes relating to White House meetings, welfare reform tasks, and agency rule and regulation draft discussions, briefing materials, draft legislation, talking points, and draft and final Agency Rules.
