The Honorable W. Neil Eggleston
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20502

Dear Mr. Eggleston:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to the incumbent President of our intent to open Quayle Vice Presidential records in response to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request listed in Attachment A.

This material, consisting of 58 pages, has been reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions, resulting in a total of 0 pages restricted. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 58 pages. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing former President George H.W. Bush's representative, James W. Cicconi, and former Vice President Quayle's representative, John Howard, of our intent to release these records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is December 4, 2015, unless the former President, former Vice President, or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or if the former or incumbent President asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

This researcher submitted a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for records related to Motorola, Inc. The Quayle Vice Presidential records proposed for opening are letters, papers, printed material, and a statement. These materials consist of letters between Vice President Quayle’s general counsel, John Howard, and businessmen about a meeting, as well as a letter regarding White House initiatives on civil justice reform, and a letter from Senator John McCain to Vice President Quayle regarding business competitiveness in the telecommunications and satellite industries as it affected Arizona businesses. The papers are comprised of draft book chapters written by Richard Weise, Motorola’s general counsel, on lawyers and integrity from a book titled, Representing the Corporate Client: Designs for Quality. The printed material is a magazine article on commercial tort litigation titled “Investing in Justice,” which was published in The Brief; and the statement consists of remarks from Richard Weise supporting alternative dispute resolution as a form of civil justice reform.
