The Honorable W. Neil Eggleston
Counsel to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20502

Dear Mr. Eggleston:

In accordance with the requirements of the Presidential Records Act (PRA), as amended, 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, this letter constitutes a formal notice from the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) to the incumbent President of our intent to open Quayle Vice Presidential records in response to the systematic processing project listed in Attachment A.

This material, consisting of 7,000 pages, has been reviewed for all applicable FOIA exemptions, resulting in a total of 1,922 pages restricted. NARA is proposing to open the remaining 5,078 pages. A copy of any records proposed for release under this notice will be provided to you upon your request.

We are also concurrently informing former President George H.W. Bush's representative, James W. Cicconi, and former Vice President Quayle's representative, John Howard, of our intent to release these records. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a), NARA will release the records 60 working days from the date of this letter, which is August 3, 2016, unless the former President, former Vice President, or incumbent President requests a one-time extension of an additional 30 working days or if the former or incumbent President asserts a constitutionally based privilege, in accordance with 44 U.S.C. 2208(b)-(d). Please let us know if you are able to complete your review before the expiration of the 60 working day period. Pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 2208(a)(1)(B), we will make this notice available to the public on the NARA website.

If you have any questions relating to this request, please contact me at (202) 357-5144 or NARA General Counsel Gary M. Stern at (301) 837-3026.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "B. John Laster". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial "B" and a long, sweeping underline.

The George H.W. Bush Library has completed the systematic processing of Speech and Correspondence files maintained by the Office of National Security Affairs. The Quayle Vice Presidential records proposed for opening are cover sheets, correspondence, printed material, and speeches. The cover sheets are routine sheets of paper covering other documents. The correspondence arranges administrative details, such as travel and scheduling, and provides background information and suggested themes for speeches. It also includes letters from private citizens addressing current issues such as immigration, foreign aid, human rights, trade, narcotics trafficking, and defense spending. The printed material consists of clippings submitted with letters from private citizens, which address issues such as foreign affairs, human rights, US aid to foreign countries, the Gulf War, SDI, the defense budget, aerospace, and international trade. The speeches by Vice President Quayle discuss domestic and international issues such as the economy, defense spending, trade, human rights, and immigration. Also enclosed are speeches by other administration officials, including Secretaries Baker and Cheney, and Deputy National Security Advisor Gates.
