IMPORTANT INFORMATION

WHAT WE HAVE: NARA has inbound Federal ship passenger arrival records dating back to 1820 for most east coast and gulf coast ports and a few lists dating back to 1800 for Philadelphia. Ship passenger lists in our custody are not complete.

WHAT WE CAN SEARCH: *Passenger Indexes: We can search indexes if you supply the following information: full name of the passenger, port of entry, and approximate date of arrival. The following major indexes exist: Baltimore (1820-1952), Boston (1848-91 and 1902-20), New Orleans (1853-1952), New York (1820-46 and 1897-1948), Philadelphia (1800-1948), minor ports (1820-74 and 1890-1924), and Canadian and Mexican border crossings after 1895. Unindexed Passenger Lists: We cannot search these lists without more specific information than we require for index searches. To search unindexed passenger lists through 1892, you must supply port of entry, name of the vessel, approximate date of arrival, and the full name and age of the passenger. For those lists, we can also make a search with port of embarkation, exact date of arrival, port of entry, and the full name and age of the passenger. To search unindexed lists after 1892, we need the port of entry, the name of the vessel, the exact date of arrival, the full name of the passenger, and the names and ages of accompanying passengers, if any. PLEASE NOTE: NARA has no index for New York for the period 1847 through 1896 or for the period 1949 through the present. Two websites, www.castlegarden.org and www.ellislandrecords.org, offer free indexes to some of these records. Ancestry.com offers indexes to most passenger arrival records for a fee.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: You may order reproductions of an entire passenger list by making a specific request. Write to NARA at the address above or go to www.archives.gov/contact. We will notify you of the cost. In addition, you may search records that are too voluminous for NARA staff to search. A list of independent researchers is available on our website at www.archives.gov. Naturalization (Citizenship) Records: Naturalization records are separate from passenger arrival lists. The National Archives has copies of naturalization papers (1798-1906) for Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Maine and original records (1802-1926) for the District of Columbia. For information about citizenship granted elsewhere through September 26, 1906, write to the Federal, State, or municipal court that issued the naturalization. The US Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS), Washington, DC 20536 can furnish information on naturalizations that occurred after September 26, 1906. The form to request this information, G639, is available online at www.uscis.gov.
