$ 77500
The above represents the real market value of the property taken at the time and place stated The said property was taken under the following circumstances: When I came to Banada Slamosa So live, I Knew that the Spacke Indians had their reservation in the vicinity but I did not expect them to go on the warpath, Killand steal all what they came across, because when we first came they were friendly and seemed good natured I April 1880, Victorio was on the height of his atrocities he came with his tribe composed of 2 or 300 bucks & Juan and stole or Killed my cattle and stock as above described I was glad to save my life and Kept as far possible from the Indians. We pursued the Indians when they were in small bands and had a chance to get our stock buck again, We recovered often stock which we lost again a few days later. When finally the Spackes were vanquished and removed from the Territory I have never recovered, or received any recompense for, any of said property except as above set forth.
