

Jane Dinkel
Security Director, Lockheed Martin
NISPPAC Industry member

With over 30 years of Industrial Security experience, Jane is currently a Security Director with Lockheed Martin Missiles & Fire Control (MFC) based in Dallas, Texas. Jane's areas of responsibility include Enterprise Performance, Integrated Air Missile Defense, Tactical Missiles and Supply Chain Security.

Prior to joining Lockheed Martin in 2008, Jane served 20+ years with Defense Counterintelligence and Security Agency (DCSA), previously known as Defense Security Service (DSS), where she was the Field Office Chief in Dallas, TX and Huntsville, AL. During her career with DCSA/DSS, Jane also served as an Industrial Security Rep, polygraph examiner and Investigator.

Jane is an elected Industry member of the National Industrial Security Policy Advisory Council (NISPPAC). In this capacity Jane represents Industry during advisements to the Industrial Security Oversight Office on all matters concerning policies of the NISP, including recommended changes to those policies and to discuss policy issues in dispute. She also chairs the NISPPAC Entity Vetting Working Group and the NISPPAC Security Rating Score Working Group.

Jane holds a Bachelor of Science in Finance and a Master's in Security Management.

She is the recipient of numerous awards including the DSS Distinguished Service Award, several James S. Cogswell Awards, MFC Evening of Excellence Awards and a Lockheed Martin's highest honor, the NOVA award.

When not working Jane enjoys playing competitive mahjong, spending time with her family and traveling.