

Rosael (Rosie) Borrero Jones

Director of Enterprise Classified Networks, RTX

Rosie Borrero Jones is a veteran security professional with more than 25 years of experience in cybersecurity and information assurance. Known for her strategic insight and strong leadership, she has made significant contributions to strengthening cybersecurity postures and driving compliance within complex, high-stakes environments.

As the Director of Enterprise Classified Networks at RTX, Rosie leads the strategy and oversight of enterprise-wide classified network infrastructure. She drives security initiatives that protect the integrity of RTX's classified operations and works closely with Intelligence Community and Department of War stakeholders to ensure mission success and regulatory compliance.

Rosie's career began with her service in the United States Air Force, where she built a strong foundation in information systems, security operations, and mission-focused leadership. She has since held key roles at organizations including SAIC, SASSI Inc., ENSCO Inc., Northrop Grumman, TASC Inc., L-3 Communications, and Harris Corporation. Her career highlights include overseeing cloud application migrations, leading successful compliance audits, managing enterprise security risks, and mentoring the next generation of cybersecurity professionals.

She has also been a highly engaged industry leader. Rosie served as an elected industry board member on the National Industrial Security Program Policy Advisory Council (NISPPAC) from 2018 – 2022 and has chaired the Community Association for Information Systems Security Working Group (CAISSWG) since 2015. She was elected for a second term to the NISPPAC, effective October 1, 2026, reaffirming her continued commitment to shaping national industrial security policy and best practices.

Rosie holds a Master of Arts in Business & Organizational Security Management from Webster University and a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Columbia College. She is a Certified Information Systems Security Professional (CISSP) and a member of the Delta Mu Delta National Honor Society in Business Administration.

Rosie's leadership emphasizes collaboration, innovation, and strategic alignment. Her extensive experience, dedication to the cybersecurity mission, and strong relationships across the Intelligence Community and Department of War make her a highly valued contributor to RTX and the national security community.
