

MARK BRADLEY. The President of the United States approved Mr. Bradley's appointment as Director of the Information Security Oversight Office (ISOO), effective December 2016. ISOO is responsible to the President for policy and oversight of the government-wide security classification system under Executive Order 13526, the National Industrial Security Program under Executive Order 12829, as amended, and the Controlled Unclassified Information Program under Executive Order 13556. As the Director of ISOO, Mr. Bradley serves as the Executive Secretary of the Interagency Security Classification Appeals Panel and the Public Interest Declassification Board, and as the Chairman of the National Industrial Security Program Policy Advisory Committee, the State, Local, Tribal, and Private Sector Policy Advisory Committee, and the Controlled Unclassified Information Advisory Council. Mr. Bradley has been a member of the Federal government's Senior Executive Service since 2003.

Mr. Bradley previously served as the Director of FOIA (Freedom of Information Act), Declassification, and Pre-publication Review, National Security Division, Office of Law and Policy at the Department of Justice (DOJ). While at the Department, he also served as the Deputy Counsel for Intelligence Policy, and the Acting Chief for Intelligence Oversight.

Before joining the Department of Justice in November 2000, Mr. Bradley served as a CIA intelligence officer and Senator Daniel Patrick Moynihan's legislative assistant for foreign affairs and intelligence matters and as his last legislative director. He co-drafted the legislation that established the Public Interest Declassification Board. Mr. Bradley, who remains a member of the District of Columbia Bar, has also worked as a criminal defense lawyer in the District of Columbia defending indigents accused of serious crimes.

The Society for History in the Federal Government awarded A Very Principled Boy, his biography of Soviet spy Duncan Lee, its 2015 George Pendleton Prize for being the best book written by a federal historian in 2014.

Mr. Bradley is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Washington & Lee University and holds an M.A. in Modern History from Oxford University, which he attended as a Rhodes Scholar, and a J.D. from the University of Virginia.

Greg Pannoni

Greg became an employee of the federal government in June of 1980 with the Defense Investigative Service, a component of the Department of Defense, currently known as the Defense Counterintelligence and Security Agency (DCSA). He was initially employed as a personnel security specialist wherein he managed background investigations for the purpose of determining a person's eligibility to access classified national security information. In July of 1983 he transferred to the Defense Industrial Security Program (DISP) and served in a number of positions to include Industrial Security Representative, staff officer and supervisor. Each of these assignments involved responsibilities pertinent to the implementation, monitoring, oversight and policy of the National Industrial Security Program (NISP), the successor to the DISP. He also served as a member of the United States Security Policy Board Staff wherein he worked on information, personnel, physical and industrial security issues, and he was a Deputy Inspector General (IG) within the DSS, Office of the IG for several years.

In December of 2004 Greg joined the staff of the Information Security Oversight Office (ISOO) and currently serves as the Associate Director for Operations & Industrial Security and Controlled Unclassified Information. ISOO is established within the National Archives and acts in consultation with the National Security Advisor in developing policies and overseeing agency actions to ensure compliance with the President's program for classifying, safeguarding and declassifying national security information per Executive Order 13526. He is responsible for monitoring and overseeing the implementation of this program and the complementary programs for Industry, the NISP per Executive Order 12829, and for State, Local, Tribal and Private Sector Entities, the SLTPS program per Executive Order 13549, as well as the Controlled Unclassified Information program per Executive Order 13556. Greg is also ISOO's representative to various governance entities to ensure coordinated interagency development and reliable implementation of policies and minimum standards regarding information security, personnel security, and systems security.

He is a Magna Cum Laude graduate of Towson University in Towson, MD, with a degree in Political Science.
