

NOW AVAILABLE FOR PURCHASE FROM THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES IN KANSAS CITY

From wild Westerners to patriots and protesters, the National Archives opens its storehouse of American history in the pages of Great Plains Originals: Historic Documents from America's Heartland.

This colorful new book boasts a parade of the choicest items held by the Archives' Central Plains Region in Kansas City. You'll find Buffalo Bill and Walt Disney, tarred-and-feathered farmers, aging Civil War veterans who had to register as enemy aliens, and scores more gems of Americana.

In the 200 full-color pages of Great Plains Originals, author Brian Burnes tells the story of each photograph, illustration, document and artifact — all assembled by the archives from Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Minnesota and the Dakotas.

The National Archives-Central Plains Region Volunteers are selling copies of this book. Copies are available for purchase at the Central Plains Region volunteer office in the microfilm research room for $25.00. Additionally, you may order a copy for $29.00 (includes S+H) via email at: volunteer.kansascity@nara.gov Payment must be received prior to shipping. Cash, checks, or money orders are accepted and payable to: NARA-CPR Volunteers.

TO ORDER:

Detach and mail bottom portion to NARA-CPR, Attn. Volunteer Treasurer, 2312 E. Bannister Rd., Kansas City, MO 64131

NAME: _____

ADDRESS: _____

CITY: _____ STATE: _____ ZIP: _____

PHONE: _____

EMAIL: _____

Check or Money order number _____ Do you need a receipt? (circle) yes/no