

Congress and Human Trafficking in 1812

Part B. Instructions: Complete the following tasks by drawing from the evidence you recorded on Worksheet 1 as well as in Part A of this worksheet.

1. Write a brief narrative of the actions recorded in the five excerpts you have studied in this lesson. In your account, be sure to:
 - name the authors of the documents
 - keep the events in chronological order
 - be specific about what was reported, requested, or stated

2. Draw from your narrative to comment on how this history reflects the existence of human trafficking in 1812 and responses to the issue. (Note: Human trafficking is the forced movement of people for commercial purposes.)
