MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS ~~JK~~

SUBJECT: Collection of Judgment Against
White House Employee

Attorney Murray Watson, Jr., of Waco, Texas has written James A. Baker, III, advising him that Watson's law office represents a state agency which has obtained a judgment against a former employee "who is now a paid employee on the Whitehouse [sic] staff." I called Watson to obtain the name of the individual. Watson identified the debtor as [REDACTED] b6
[REDACTED] allegedly received state checks after [REDACTED] left [REDACTED] state job. The state asked to be reimbursed and [REDACTED] agreed, but [REDACTED] never sent the money back. The state sued and obtained a judgment, and Watson wants to know how to collect without embarrassing the White House.

I have been unable to locate any [REDACTED] employed by the White House. Ray Kogut, Director of the Personnel Division of the Office of Administration, advises that no [REDACTED] works for the Executive Office of the President. Jim Rogers, Director of Personnel for the White House Operations Office, reports that [REDACTED] works as a detailee. The Secret Service has not issued a pass of any sort to a [REDACTED] b6

I have prepared a letter for your signature informing Watson that we have no [REDACTED] b6

Dear Mr. Watson:

This is written in response to your letter to James A. Baker III, concerning a judgment against a former Texas state employee who you assert is now a paid employee on the White House staff. You have advised this office that the individual in question is named [REDACTED] b6

We have thoroughly searched White House personnel records and have been unable to locate a [REDACTED] on the rolls of any office within the Executive Office of the President. Accordingly, we are unable to offer any guidance on collection of the debt in question. b6

Sincerely,

Fred F. Fielding
Counsel to the President
