APPOINTMENT PROCESS PERSONAL INTERVIEW RECORD

DATE OF INTERVIEW: March 22 & 23, 1983 (by telephone)
CANDIDATE: John G. Weinmann
POSITION: Commissioner General of the U.S. Government to the 1984 Louisiana World Exposition (PAS)
INTERVIEWER: John G. Roberts JGR

Comments

Mr. Weinmann is the prospective nominee for Commissioner General of the United States Government for the 1984 Louisiana World Exposition. The President is authorized to appoint such a Commissioner General by P.L. 97-254, § 2(b)(1). That section further provides that the position shall be in the Department of Commerce and that the responsibilities of the position are those prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce.

None of the holdings present an apparent impediment to the conflict-free discharge of the responsibilities of the Commissioner General. Those responsibilities, however, are not precisely defined by statute, and accordingly I advised Mr. Weinmann that he should be alert to possible conflicts and recuse himself should any matter come before him involving any entity in which he had a financial interest. I also advised him to consult the Commerce Department Ethics Officer should he have any questions in this regard during the course of his tenure. Both Ms. Wagner and Mr. Smith agreed that this was the desirable course of action.

Mr. Weinmann reported that he was on good terms with both of his state's senators.
