Dear Senator DeLong:

The Office of Intergovernmental Affairs has referred your letter of April 29 to this office for appropriate handling. In that letter you noted that you had received constituent complaints concerning the operations of the Tucson branch office of the Internal Revenue Service, [REDACTED]

b6
b3

[REDACTED] You requested a review of the quality of service being provided by that office.

Since your complaint involves a regional office of the IRS, it seems that the best approach would be to bring it to the attention of the IRS headquarters here in Washington. I have accordingly sent a copy of your letter to the Chief Counsel of the IRS. I specified in my letter to him that our concern was with your general complaint with the operations of the Tucson branch, [REDACTED]

b6

Thank you for sharing your concerns with us.

Sincerely,

Orig. signed by FFF

Dear Mr. Rich Williamson:
