MEMORANDUM FOR RICHARD A. HAUSER

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS

SUBJECT: Appointments to the National Highway Safety Advisory Committee

The National Highway Safety Advisory Committee consists of ex officio members and 35 members appointed by the President, no more than four of whom may be Federal officers or employees. The appointed members shall be selected from among representatives of various State and local governments, including State legislatures, of public and private interests contributing to, affected by, or concerned with highway safety, including the national organizations of passenger car, bus, and truck owners, and of other public and private agencies, organizations, or groups demonstrating an active interest in highway safety, as well as research scientists and other individuals who are expert in this field.

23 U.S.C. § 404(a)(1).

No member who has served a three-year term is eligible for reappointment within one year following the end of his term.
23 U.S.C. § 404(a)(2)(A). The purpose of the Committee is to advise the Secretary of Transportation on highway safety.
23 U.S.C. § 404(b).

The following prospective appointees satisfy the statutory criteria, and their Personal Data Statements present no difficulties (their qualifications for service are noted in parentheses): Frank Raper (packaging corporation; active in drunken driving awareness campaign and legislative efforts in California), Fritz Hitchcock (automobile dealer), Cynthia Bros (automobile dealer), William Taylor (insurance), Thomas McGuire (insurance; former chairman of California Traffic Safety Committee), Eric Jostrom (former advisor to Massachusetts governors on transportation issues), Candy Lightner (founder, president of Mothers Against Drunk Driving; previously cleared for President's Commission on Drunk Driving), Thom Holmes (active in mass transportation issues), Edward Reilly (insurance; state senator), A. Starke Taylor (mayor), and Andrew Natsios (state representative).

John Sammons is mayor of Temple, Texas, and thereby qualifies for service on the Committee. [REDACTED]

b6

Oswaldo Rodriguez owns a financial services company, Comput Income, Inc. [REDACTED]

b6

Vern McCarthy is eligible for service on this Committee as a former owner and director of a container and industrial packaging corporation, businesses closely involved in truck transportation issues. [REDACTED]

b6

Francis Morse is qualified for service on the Committee because he is the owner of a trucking company, Adams Trucking of New Bedford, Massachusetts. He is also a member of the American Trucking Association. [REDACTED]

bl

The Personal Data Statements of Joseph Ambrose, Hae Park, and Robert Ling present no problems. Ambrose is in the oil and gas and real estate business in Texas.

bl

Robert Ling is a former mayor and current president of a cable television corporation. He describes himself as experienced in banking, food processing, communications, defense issues, and environmental issues.

bl

Finally, I have received no Personal Data Statements from Diarmuid O'Scannlain or James Crawford.

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR

SUBJECT: Appointments to the Commission of Fine Arts

By memorandum for you dated June 24, 1985 (attached) I reviewed the prospective appointment of Carolyn Deaver, Roy Goodman, and Diane Wolf to the Commission of Fine Arts. I noted in that memorandum that three more prospective appointees to the Commission were in clearance, and that we should wait and clear all six at the same time [REDACTED]

b6 [REDACTED] I have now received Personal Data Statements from the second set of three prospective appointees.

J. Carter Brown is Director of the National Gallery of Art, and is being reappointed to the Commission. (The statute makes no reference to reappointments, so they are permitted under general principles of law.) Brown clearly satisfies the statutory requirement that appointees be "well-qualified judges of the fine arts," 40 U.S.C. § 104, and his PDS presents no problems.

Neil Porterfield is Professor and Head of the Department of Landscape Architecture at Penn State. He has received numerous awards for landscape architecture, and has written extensively in the field. I suppose it may be subject to some academic debate whether landscape architecture is considered one of the "fine arts," but there can be no doubt that knowledge of the field will be highly useful given the functions of the Commission. I accordingly consider Porterfield qualified, and his PDS presents no problems.

Pascal Regan is a Beverly Hills sculptress, described as the only person sculpting glass by hammer and chisel. [REDACTED]

b6 [REDACTED]

The attached memorandum for Tuttle, which may be sent assuming the FBI name checks are complete, embodies our previous discussion on these appointments:
