

ARCHIVES MONTH 2009 EVENTS

10/9 New York's National Treasures

Join us at Federal Hall National Memorial for a discovery session about our nation's founding documents, then tour the site where Washington was inaugurated and Congress first met.

12:30pm-2:00pm, Federal Hall National Memorial, 26 Wall Street, NYC, NY.

10/10 Exploring the U.S. Custom House Records

Join us at the U.S. Alexander Hamilton Custom House at Bowling Green for a discovery session about records that tell the story of the U.S. Custom Service.

12:00pm-3:00pm, Alexander Hamilton U. S. Custom House, 1 Bowling Green, NYC, NY.

10/13 National Archives Open House

The National Archives, the nation's record keeper, was established 75 years ago to maintain and preserve the permanent records of the U.S. Federal government. Join us for a history of the Archives, view originals of some of our most significant holdings, and tour our archival stacks.

12:00pm-2:00pm, The National Archives at New York City, 201 Varick Street, NYC, NY.

Registration required at: newyork.archives@nara.gov

10/15 Family History Game Show

Join us at Ellis Island for a short and fun interactive program that reviews basic genealogy records available at the National Archives.

Shows are 1:00pm, 1:30pm, and 2:00pm at Ellis Island Museum, Ellis Island, NY.

10/20 Finding Family: Using Google.com

Join us at 201 Varick Street as guest lecturer Dan Lynch, author of the award-winning genealogy book Google Your Family Tree, discusses key strategies for conducting research across the expanse of the World Wide Web.

12:30pm-1:30pm, The National Archives at New York City, 201 Varick Street, NYC, NY.

Registration required at: newyork.archives@nara.gov

PROGRAMS ARE OPEN TO THE PUBLIC FREE OF CHARGE!

The National Archives at New York City
201 Varick Street, 12th Floor, New York, NY 10014-4811
Website: www.archives.gov/northeast/nyc
Toll Free Phone: 866. 840. 1752
E-mail: newyork.archives@nara.gov

For a complete listing of events at the National Archives nationwide, please visit the National Archives calendar of events at: www.archives.gov/calendar/